Truman Backs Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman told his news conference today that the Senate's Mead Committee has the full support of the administration in its current inquiry into munitions profits.

Members of the committee called on him recently, the president related, and told him of their plans to investigate what were described as unconscionable war profits.

Just Like Douglas Street

Yes, it's a nylon rush, just like those you've seen at times, with the poor cop trying to hold back the mob of hose-hungry women. But this one happened in Stockholm, Sweden, when 3,000 pairs of nylons went on sale.

Battles Bee Swarm, Sustains 1 Sting

VANCOUVER (CP)—A housewife armed only with a garden spade battled for almost an hour fighting off a swarm of bees which attacked her in the basement of her home here today.

The woman, Mrs. C. J. McKinnon, opened the basement door of her home and stepped part way down to turn on the light. After turning on the light the bees swarmed all over her face and body. Staggering back to the basement door she found it had slammed shut and locked.

After picking up a spade to fight off the bees she realized she was alone in the house and she began to scream aloud for help.

In the battle Mrs. McKinnon hit the bulb with her spade and broke it.

Finally her screams attracted the attention of a neighbor. When it was all over, she found she had killed about 200 bees.

The only damage Mrs. McKinnon received was a sting on the arm.

Bing Raises Fund For Gonzaga U.

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP) — Through the efforts of Bing Crosby, a gift of $90,000 has been made by General Motors Corporation toward the construction of a $300,000 building for a School of Engineering at Gonzaga University, Rev. Father Francis E. Corkery, S.J., president of the school, announced today.

Father Corkery said Bing had agreed to an option for a second year on broadcasts for General Motors provided the company would donate $90,000 to his alma mater. The company agreed.

Seamen Remanded

PORT ARTHUR (CP) — Three members of the Canadian Seamen's Union, charged with conspiring to "seize and hold" a shipowners' representative during the recent Great Lakes Seamen's strike, were remanded to July 18 when they appeared in Magistrate's court here.

The three, Cyril Lenton, Union national treasurer, John A. Hicks and Lloyd Evans are alleged to have detained Frank Neilson at Jackfish, Ont., 110 miles east of here after ship owners had hired him as a crew member.

Wife Was Go-Between For Goering

Blue-eyed Emmy Sonnemann, plump but shapely actress who was married to Herman Goering in 1935, was described to Allied investigators as Goering's go-between in the extortion of a fortune in bribes from concentration camp victims and their kin. She personally telephoned relatives to tell them their bribes had been accepted and the victims would be released in due course. She kept most of the jewels and trinkets, such as gold cigarette cases, which were accepted in trade for the lives of those Goering himself had helped throw behind wire. Investigators say the pair garnered a fortune through this shady dealing in blood money.

France Perturbed At Russ Stand On Unified Germany

PARIS (AP) — Russia emerged today as the champion of a reunified and self-sufficient Germany on the basis of a policy-charting speech Wednesday by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov.

Addressing his colleagues in the Foreign Ministers' Council, Mr. Molotov flatly opposed the dismemberment or federalization of Germany or reduction of the Reich to an agricultural state.

The speech was the first clear-cut expression of the Kremlin's attitude toward Germany since the end of the war.

Some quarters here were inclined to write off the address as a Russian bid for popularity with Germany, and as a move to strengthen the forces of German communists.

French official quarters expressed dismay that the Russian policy of unification was in direct conflict with the French proposal to separate the Ruhr, the Saar and the Rhineland from the remainder of the Reich.

DISCUSSIONS TODAY

It was not immediately clear whether the Russian statement of policy would delay the adjournment of the council, tentatively planned for this week-end. The ministers were called into session today and resumed discussions on Germany. They are scheduled to approve final drafts of peace treaties with Italy, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Finland on Saturday.

Mr. Molotov urged:

1. The ministers should not be governed by "the spirit of revenge" in dealing with Germany, and added Russia would not object to splitting up Germany if plebiscites should show that was the desire of the Germans involved.

2. The immediate creation of a central German administration "as a transitional step toward the establishment of a future German government" with which the Allies could sign a peace treaty.

3. The establishment of a system of four-power control over German industries and over key Ruhr plants in particular. At present the Ruhr is administered exclusively by Britain.

4. A plan be drafted to assure the delivery of German reparations to the Allies as a means of furthering the "complete military and economic disarmament" of Germany.

Byrnes Backs Idea Of Unified Germany

PARIS (AP) — Secretary of State Byrnes told the Foreign Ministers Council tonight that the United States favored the economic merging of German zones if central administration agencies were not set up, an American informant said.

The offer, the American secretary said, extended to all the zones and conversations already have been had with some British and some Russian officials.

Byrnes did not identify the officials.

No Rent Increases

WASHINGTON (AP) — A move to require that the O.P.A. authorize increases in rents was rejected 58 to 14 today as the Senate drove toward a final decision on legislation to revive price controls.

The vote rejected an amendment by Senator Hawkes (R.-N.J.) to permit an immediate 5 per cent rent-increase and additional 5 per cent raises on next Nov. 30 and March 31 and forbid federal rent controls in states which already have them.

Faces New Charge

VANCOUVER (CP) — A Lawrence Allan Gilmour, under a 15-year sentence for the attempted murder last January of Traffic Officer Robert Hooper, appeared in county court today and elected for jury trial on a charge of robbery with violence.

He was remanded with his co-accused, Harry Waterfield, until the fall assizes and bail was set by Judge Bruce Boyd at $7,500 for Waterfield pending their trial.

Sea-Air Rescue May Begin Patrols Tomorrow Morning

B.C. police this afternoon asked the aid of the U.S. Coast Guard in the extensive search now being made for the three men and a boy missing aboard an inboard motor boat which was to have made its way Wednesday evening from Taylor Beach, Metchosin, to Becher Bay.

Cpl. L. Backler, B.C. Police, said if the search was unsuccessful today, the R.C.A.F. sea-air rescue service would be asked to begin patrols this evening or Friday morning.

Police believe it possible the men, instead of proceeding immediately to Becher Bay after reaching Taylor Beach by car, may have gone out on a trial run and got into difficulties.

The men are Harold Phillips, 29, 970 Scotia Street; Allan Littler, 26, 1417 Vancouver Street, and George Hutchison, 23, and David Wardell, 14, R.R. No. 1, Happy Valley Road.

B.C. police first began their search this morning after they were notified by relatives of the failure of the men and boy to arrive at their destination or contact the house at Happy Valley where they were expected to return Wednesday evening.

Local fishermen have also been called into the search and the Dominion government quarantine service vessel Salucan V was away from her berth most of the morning as she scoured the coastline around the quarantine station for a sign of the missing persons.

Mrs. Phillips, wife of one of the missing men, said her husband and the other three left by car from Happy Valley Road for Taylor Beach, where it was proposed two of them would take the boat to Becher Bay, while the remaining two drove around by car to pick them up and take them back to the Hutchison home on Happy Valley Road.

The group had planned that the boat would leave Taylor Beach at about 5 and reach Becher Bay later in the evening.

This morning, when the four had not returned to Happy Valley and there was no word of their whereabouts, their families and friends began a search.

The searchers, going to Taylor Beach at about 10.30 this morning discovered the car, which was to have been taken to Becher Bay, still standing at the Metchosin beach and no sign of any of the four.

Mrs. Phillips said she presumed all four had gone in the boat, but she did not know why the plans might have been altered. None of them had made the journey from Taylor Beach to Becher Bay in the inboard motor boat before, she said.

Hull Backs Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull, urging approval of the $3,750,000,000 British loan, said today that with its aid Britain can help the United States lead the world "in the direction of peace and well being."

Hull expressed his views in a letter to Speaker Rayburn (D.-Tex.), who made it public as the House turned back to consideration of the credit after a 24-hour interruption for other business.

Communist Paper Scores Repatriated U.S. Newspaperman

MOSCOW (AP)—The official Communist newspaper Pravda today asserted Brooks Atkinson, former New York Times correspondent in Moscow, was an "untalented slanderer," "a gangster of the pen" and a "product of the stock exchange and black market."

The Pravda writer, David Zaslavsky, criticized Atkinson for saying he had found "an iron curtain" in Russia and that this terms is a "devilishly appropriate expression."

The Pravda writer said Atkinson was a writer who "jumps out" after living "10 months behind that infamous 'curtain'."

The Pravda article dealt with Atkinson's statements that inside the Soviet Union there existed no kind of freedom, no democracy but ony totalitarianism.

Zaslavsky said the Times writer was repeating "old twaddle" without noting "in what a laughable and foolish situation he placed himself. This is no plain slander; this is undignified slander."

Dealing with Atkinson's claim that there were grounds for believing the Soviet Union was interfering in French politics, subsidizing the French Communist Party and giving it directives, the Pravda writer said:

"It would be altogether useless to speak with this savage. It is impossible for this product of the stock exchange and the black market to understand that the party, uniting an appreciable part of the French people, does not need directives and will not tolerate any such directives . . ."

Three articles by Atkinson, giving his opinions of Russia based on his 10-month stay in Moscow, were published this week in the New York Times.

Atkinson said the United States would have to abandon "the familiar concepts of friendship" in dealing with Russia because "friendship is not wanted, is not possible and is not involved." Writing of the Soviet government, Atkinson said that "despite its sanctimonious use of the word 'democracy', it is a totalitarian government" and "the familiar dictatorship of the proletariat is actually a dictatorship of the 13 members of the Politburo of the Communist Party."

Atkinson declared "there are no freedoms inside the Soviet Union." He said the United States and Russia were "not enemies, but we are not friends."

One of these lovely eyes was nicely blackened when its owner, actress Peggy Cummins, met with an accident while moving furniture. Peggy, it is reported, will take up the title role in "Forever Amber" when production of that movie is resumed in September.

Queensland Strikes Breaking Up Fast; Communists Scored

BRISBANE, Australia (CP)—Workers' meetings, described by newspapers as anti-Communist demonstrations, are ending the 19-week-old strike of meat workers in Queensland State and the sympathy walkouts of waterfront workers and coal miners which have brought transport power restrictions, widespread blackout and unemployment.

Six thousand meat workers who left their jobs in March have voted to return to work and their example has been followed by 3,000 waterfront workers who struck in sympathy in May.

Two thousand coal miners whose strike action three weeks ago resulted in severe power and gas rationing are expected to return to the mines before next week.

$15,000,000 LOSS

Between 60,000 and 100,000 workers have become idle in the last two weeks because of electricity and transport restrictions imposed by the state government which proclaimed a state of emergency June 27. The tie-up is estimated to have meant a loss of $15,000,000 to workers, exporters and cattlemen, with thousands of head of cattle that normally would have been slaughtered, left on their hands.

Closing of industries and skeleton transport services caused by the power shortage affected the lives of a large proportion of Queensland's 950,000 and brought a blackout to Brisbane, state capital and city of 350,000.

Premier Edward Hanlon blamed Communists for prolonging a dispute which originated with the dismissal of four bacon factory employees, and charged the Communists with aiming to destroy the established system of arbitration.

B.C.E.R. Employees Vote Again July 23

Executive board of the Street Railwaymen's Union (A.F.L.) Wednesday night recommended the 2,800 employees of the British Columbia Electric Railway Co. Ltd. in Victoria, Vancouver and New Westminster accept the company's latest counter-proposals for a 1946 collective bargaining contract.

George M. Morrison, business agent for the union, said a referendum would be conducted on the proposals July 23.

Both employees and the company have declined to reveal the counter-proposals, but spokesmen announced the union last month turned down an offer of a three-cents-an-hour wage increase and a 44-hour week. Original union demands included a 40-hour week with no reduction in pay from the present 48-hour week, plus a three-cents-an-hour wage boost.

Visit Saves Life Of Elderly Woman

EVERETT, Mass. (AP)—The timely arrival of a brother from New York probably saved Miss Mary Flaherty, 63, from slow death by starvation after she had been trapped for several days in an attic closet in her home.

She was sealed in the closet from Saturday until Wednesday after a spring-locked door had slammed behind her.

Alone in the house, she reported she banged on the closet door as often as possible during the four day's confinement until finally her brother, Michael, 75, heard the knocking. He had come to pay one of his occasional visits. Doctors expect her to recover.

Machinists To Get Certificates Friday

E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, will present journeymen certificates Friday afternoon to Jack Macbeth and Fred Beal who have just completed a five-year apprenticeship as machinists at G. B. Murdie Ltd.

The apprenticeship is under the supervision of the provincial labor department and this is the first time a ceremony has been made at the completion of the course.

Attending the ceremony will be Mayor Percy George and members of the city business, trade, and re-establishment committee, representatives of the Department of Labor, and Maj. H. Cuthbert Holmes, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Cowichan Indians Discuss, Reply To Questionnaire

DUNCAN—Chiefs and leading tribesmen of the Cowichan Indians held a meeting here to discuss an eight-point questionnaire submitted to them for consideration by the Department of Indian Affairs, Ottawa.

The chiefs sent the following reply to Ottawa:

It is requested that treaty rights entered into between certain Vancouver Island tribes and the Hudson's Bay Company in 1850, be extended to all British Columbia tribes, and that treaty rights of prairie Indians be extended to British Columbia Indians.

Indians in Cowichan should be treated as one band.

No tax should be put on Indian lands or on income earned on the reserve. No objection will be taken to tax on money earned off the reserve, if Indians are accorded same rights as white men.

Indians should have full franchise, in such a way as to insure direct Indian representation.

No reserve land should be sold or leased except after a favorable vote by the Indians concerned. No lease should be for more than 25 years.

All Indian children should be educated under the public school system. If in some cases residential schools are necessary, these should be non-sectarian.

Also requested was a better old-age pension for Indians, good public health service, social security equal to that of other Canadians, money to be advanced to Indians in approved cases for agriculture, fishing or other actitvities in order that Indians may become self-supporting, and restoration of fishing stations on Cowichan River granted by a Royal Commission years ago.

Playground Activities

SAANICH

Rudd Play Park named after ex-Councillor G. Rudd of Saanich was officially opened Wednesday evening for children in the Tolmie School district. The playground is situated at Harriet and Burnside Roads.

Established by the Saanich Recreational Council with the assistance of the municipal council, school board and P.-T.A., the park was offiially opened by Rev. N. S. Noel.

Using a large vacant lot donated by the municipality for the purpose, the recreational council has constructed a baseball diamond, football field and installed a merry-go-round at the park. Swings, lunch tables, and a sand pile also have been provided.

Miss R. Woodward has been named supervisor of the playground activities, and it is the hope that a phonograph will be donated in the near future in order that folk dancing can be taught the youngsters.

Craigflower summer playground was officially opened Wednesday, with a good attendance of boys and girls of all ages, and many parents and friends from the neighborhood.

Councillor J. W. Casey outlined how the Greater Victoria School Board was giving every assistance possible, and said he hoped the children would enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. He said playground work was very valuable to the child.

Miss M. Orman, supervisor of the playground, invited the parents to come to the playground at any time.

Girls were on parade with their favorite dolls. Carol Hawthorn won the prize for the best dressed doll. In the boys' best decorated bicycle parade, Larry Alexander won the prize. Mrs. P. Andrews and Mrs. F. Alexander acted as judges.

The children then proceeded with their many activities, including a baseball game, girls versus boys.

More Police Needed In Duncan, Officer Tells City Council

DUNCAN — There are not enough policemen in this city to enforce traffic regulations, Cpl. Jack Henry of the B.C. Police told city council Tuesday night.

The city decided to meet with the commissioner of police at Victoria, and inquire whether additional police were the only solution to the difficulty.

C. W. O'Neill and P. K. Lomas presented a petition signed by a number of ratepayers requesting the city to set aside a portion of the Indian Reserve for a municipality-operated golf course, should the city purchase part of the reserve. Council said that at the present stage in negotiations the request could not be acted upon.

Question of reviving a by-law in connection with chimney fires was left in the hands of the fire wardens. Council expressed concern over the number of recent chimney fires.

City health committee reported that the new health unit would begin operation September 1. Mayor G. Savage presided.

I.W.A., Operators Reported Deadlocked

VANCOUVER (CP)—Charges and counter-charges of "agreement breaking" were hurled by union and operators' representatives Wednesday night as the current negotiations in the interior lumber industry dispute were reported deadlocked.

The parties have been negotiating final details of the 1946 master contract after reaching an interim agreement last week for a 10-cents-an-hour wage boost across the board together with upward revision of the basic common labor rate to 67 cents an hour.

Harold Pritchett, district president of the International Woodworkers of America, (C.I.O.-C.C.L.), said operator representatives had "repudiated" a commitment in last week's agreement to have Chief Justice Gordon Sloan act as arbitrator when the parties could not agree on certain questions.

The statement was denied by John H. Ruddock, operator spokesman, who said the union was asking for such arbitration on the question of the general contract, and that last week's agreement only provided for arbitration to be binding on the question of revision of wage categories.

Stating his group had agreed to give "serious consideration" to any decision by the Chief Justice on the general contract question, Mr. Ruddock said the union is "creating the deadlock by acting unreasonably." He added the union officials were demanding a general revision of Prince George area wage categories and that last week's agreement only provided for negotiation on eight categories in each of five interior districts, including Prince George.

Snead Will Defend British Open Golf

NEW YORK (AP) — Sam Snead, returning Wednesday with the prized British Open golf trophy, said he plans to go back to Hoylake next year to try it again because "I've found if I win them once I usually win them twice, like Joe Louis."

Slammin' Sammy attributes his victory at St. Andrews to the fact he was driving well, and putting adequately, although not sensationally.

"Those greens are something entirely different from the ones we have in this country," he said in describing the famed Scottish course. "Most of them are double greens, with pins at each end for different holes. You can be on a green and still be about 125 yards from your cup."

Power Plant Burned At Slocan City

SLOCAN CITY, B.C. (CP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Slocan City power plant, valued at an estimated $15,000, Wednesday. The blaze began under a 750-gallon tank of crude oil filled only a few hours previously. It was only a matter of seconds until the fuel container was a blazing inferno. Flames shot up 200 feet and spread immediately to the powerhouse, where now only cement foundations remain.

Hoses from three hydrants, although unable to extinguish the fire which burned for more than an hour, were able to keep the flames from reaching out to nearby buildings, closest of which was 75 feet away. Several young Japanese, protected by streams of water from the pumps, rolled barrels of oil away from the blaze.

C.I.O. Moulders To Appeal Award

VANCOUVER (CP)—Officials of the striking Metal and Chemical Workers (C.I.O.) said Wednesday night they would appeal a Regional War Labor Board decision rejecting an application for a 15-cents-an-hour wage increase made by the union and two city foundries.

Earlier the board had issued a directive approving the application of 17 other foundries and the A.F.L. Moulders' Union for a 10-cents-an-hour increase and a 40-hour week.

Meanwhile, John Frame, the C.C.L. union's strike committee chairman, criticized what he called the "treachery" of A.F. L. Moulders' Union leaders as "contributing" to the board's decision. He charged that the board had entered into a jurisdictional dispute situation and sided with the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the A.F.L. union."

The strike, involving 32 foundries altogether, now is in its 56th day. It was called by the C.C.L. union in an effort to obtain a 25-cents-an-hour wage increase, a 40-hour week and union security.

Quebec Liberals Threaten Revolt Over Flag Issue

OTTAWA (CP)—The problem of choosing a "distinctive national flag" was drifting today towards what is potentially the major controversy of Canada's 20th Parliament.

In the face of blunt warnings from Quebec, its joint Senate-Commons flag committee spurred that drift Wednesday by leaving as the lone design for its final choice the Red Ensign with its Union Jack and with a golden maple leaf replacing the coat of arms in the fly. The flag design favored by Quebec members—composed of red and white triangles with a centred green maple leaf—was voted down 15 to 8.

The committee's action meant that between debate on the floors of Parliament itself — and the threat that most of the Quebec Liberals may revolt—there is only the time needed by a subcommittee of that committee to thrash out certain details of the ensign design, and for the committee to draw up its final report.

Quebec members at a Liberal caucus Wednesday hinted at delaying activities to kill the issue out of this session of Parliament. They warned that Premier Maurice Duplessis might fight the government federally on the flag issue alone.

In the committee the vote spurred Wilfrid Lacroix, Lib., Quebec-Montmorency, to charge that inclusion of the Union Jack had been a "foregone conclusion." He warned sharply: "Let me tell you the province of Quebec and a large portion of all other provinces will never accept a Canadian flag with a Union Jack in it."

Then he walked out.

But there was at least one conflicting note in the gathering Quebec storm.

L. R. Beaudoin, Lib., Vaudreuil Soulanges, told the committee he was willing to accept the views of the majority. No other Quebec members supported him openly but, on the other hand, no other Quebec members walked out with Mr. Lacroix.

The flag issue was brought up at a Liberal Party Caucus Wednesday, and reports emanating from the meeting indicated Prime Minister King was told he could not expect the support of the majority of Quebec members on the issue if he advocated adoption of a design containing the Union Jack.

From a source close to party affairs, the Canadian Press learned that Mr. King appealed to party supporters to accept as Canada's flag the Red Ensign with a gold maple leaf replacing the coat-of-arms in the fly.

Mr. King appealed for unity in the party and told how he had grown up to recognize the Red Ensign as Canada's national flag. He said he was anxious to have the matter cleared up before he leaves for the peace conference at the end of the month.

After Mr. King had resumed his seat it appeared for a time as if the caucus might break up. Then, it was learned, Bona Arsenault, Independent Member for the Quebec constituency of Bonaventure, arose and for more than half an hour pleaded that the Prime Minister change his mind.

Mr. Arsenault, who is invited to Liberal caucuses although he sits as an Independent, was reported to have made a "dramatic" appeal that Quebec members should not be forced into a position of having to vote against a design including the Union Jack.

Mr. Arsenault referred to the fact that the Liberal party at the next election would not be going to the polls under the leadership of Mr. King. He pointed to the possibility that Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec might field 65 Independent candidates to run against Liberal candidates on the flag issue in particular.

Missiles Suggest Russ Testing Rockets

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Shining missiles seen in the last 24 hours traveling at great altitude with high speed caused speculation by newspaper Aftonbladet that Russians are conducting rocket experiments on Baltic bases.

The recent missiles were described by witnesses as "a greenish blue shining ball giving off a tail of light of the same color."

Similar sights two months ago were reported from about 10 places in Sweden and several places in Finland.

Russia Opposes Atom-Control Plan

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet Russia was reported authoritatively today to have rejected Australia's suggestion for an autonomous authority controlling atomic energy and to have insisted on putting all atomic control under the Security Council. The Russian position was presented by Andrei Gromyko at a closed meeting of a committee of the U.N. Atomic Energy Commission which has been exploring atomic control.

Taxpayers Up 3,000

During the past two or three years the number of taxpayers in Victoria has gone up almost 3,000, G. A. Okell, city assessor-collector, stated today.

For the past three weeks the city tax office has been sending out tax bills at the rate of almost 1,000 a day.

Tax collections are continuing to pour in and he anticipated a rush of business during the next month as the bills are received. Until Oct. 1 taxpayers receive interest on prepaid taxes, and after that date a 1 per cent penalty is imposed on unpaid taxes.

Box Shortages Trouble Fruit Shippers Of Okanagan; Big Apple Crop Coming

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Serious box shortages will threaten various sections of the fruit-growing Okanagan Valley as a result of the strike involving box factories, a survey showed today. President J. R. J. Darling of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association said some areas will encounter considerable difficulty before the fruit season is ended.

Box factories were closed as some 37,000 loggers and sawmill workers in this province were idle for 39 days and although the employees returned to their jobs late in June, the box factories are behind on orders and the shortage is expected to continue into October in most sections on the basis of estimates of a good fruit crop.

The International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) signed an agreement which allowed some 32,000 workers to return to their posts along the coast. This agreement called for 15-cent hourly wage boosts, a 44-hour week and the "irrevocable check-off." An agreement has not yet been signed covering the interior where some 5,000 are employed in logging camps and sawmills, but they are back at work while conciliation proceeds.

Interior box factories are substantially behind with their orders and officials are reluctant to order boxes from the coast. Fruit packers said the coast boxes are not considered as satisfactory as interior-made boxes and in addition cost eight cents each more.

General crop prospects for the B.C. interior look good with the exception of cherries.

NEED 1,500,000

The box picture, briefly, is: Kelowna district needs 1,500,000 more boxes. The Simpson box factory capacity is 15,000 a day, so it will need 100 capacity days to fill the demand. This will make it Oct. 31. At the end of September, it is estimated the district will be about 400,000 boxes short. However recent crop estimates have forced packing houses to increase their estimates by another 125,000, so the district will be more than 500,000 boxes short at the end of September.

Summerland, Keremeos and Peachland will be short about 150,000 and will have to buy that quantity from the coast. Creston, Oliver and Penticton supplies are adequate if their mill can turn out its quota of 400,000 as expected. The Vernon situation should be well in hand by Oct. 15. Kamloops is short 150,000 boxes and has ordered 50,000 cartons and shooks for 77,000 boxes from the coast. Salmon Arm supplies are sufficient.

The cherry crop will be only 60 per cent of last year's, it is estimated.

Prunes will be down about 10 per cent from the heavy crop last year but pears, peaches and apricots will be up considerably it is now believed. Apples, which last year were light, now give promise of a very heavy crop. Government estimates have put it at 7,300,000 boxes in the interior and while B.C. tree fruits are non-committal at the present, pending their own survey, it is unofficially indicated the crop will exceed the government's estimate by a considerable figure.

Weatherman Reports Rainfall Near Double That Of Last July

Victorians wondering about their January in July weather have good cause for complaint.

William Burton, meteorologist-in-charge at Gonzales Observatory, said today rainfall up to Wednesday was close to double the total precipitation for the entire month of July last year.

So far .38 inches of rain have fallen as compared to only .22 for all of July, 1945.

Forecast for Friday, he said, showed a little promise of improvement with the morning's cloudy skies clearing by noon and moderate southwest winds.

Mr. Burton said inquiries from citizens, especially those on vacation, had mounted at Gonzales Observatory during the last week. He agreed they had cause for complaint with .23 inches of rain, more than last July's total, falling in a single day—last Monday.

He quoted an official report as saying "the weather system which passed over the coastal area last night now is weakening and moving eastward through the interior of the province."

In other words the weather is getting worse in the interior while no definite promise is held of improved conditions here.

Comparison of Victoria temperatures recorded at Gonzales showed 82 degrees July 6 and 7, 1945. Highest this month was 72 degrees early Wednesday afternoon.

Radio Locates Cobble Hill Girl For U.S. Sailor After 2 Years

VANCOUVER (CP) — An appeal by a U.S. sailor to a Vancouver radio station CKWX to help him find his Canadian girl friend whom he had been trying to locate for two years met with success Wednesday after the station had broadcast his plight on one of its regular newscasts.

The sailor, Thomas J. Roach of the Ss. Midland Victory, now in port at Baltimore, Md., wrote to the station telling how he was trying to find the whereabouts of Winnifred Hearn, with whom he had corresponded when she lived in Edmonton.

She moved with her family to Cobble Hill, Vancouver Island, in 1944 and it was there that she heard Roach was trying to locate her. She, herself, didn't hear the newcast, but an acquaintance, Ethel McLeod, was listening in and she soon ascertained that Winnifred was the girl the sailor was attempting to trace.

The correspondence between the Canadian girl and Roach was interrupted in March, 1944, when the ship on which he was serving was torpedoed by a Japanese submarine. He was rescued and sent to a rest camp, but before he could get his next letter off to Winnifred she had moved. In spite of numerous efforts he was unable to trace her until Wednesday.

Increase In British Imports Now Dollar's Value Restored

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD
Victoria Times Correspondent

OTTAWA—Failure of Progressive Conservative M.P.'s in the budget debate to attack seriously the restoration of the Canadian dollar to parity with the United States dollar is accepted as tacit recognition that the government timed its currency move to cause the minimum disturbance possible to the nation's economy.

Political groups here regardless of their party stripe concede the Canadian dollar could only have been held at a discount indefinitely by wholly artificial means. Already it had become in terms of real purchasing power considerably more valuable than the American dollar. And rising prices in the United States were increasing the anomaly daily.

ADJUST THEIR PRICES

Facing the inevitability of action some time, the federal authorities are being given credit in impartial circles for having timed their move when:

1—Most Canadian export industries, notably newsprint, woodpulp and other forest and mineral products, are operating in a "sellers' market" which will enable them to adjust their prices to compensate for the 10 per cent loss of premium on the U.S. dollar which they have suffered.

2—Rising prices in the United States will more than compensate Canadian industries for the loss of tariff protection which the 10 per cent premium on the U.S. dollar constituted.

3—High-grade producing gold mines, which have had their operations greatly curtailed during the war years by labor and machinery shortages, are in a position to absorb fully any miners who may be affected by the closing down of some low-grade gold properties through loss of the 10 per cent premium on their output.

In its trading effect, the result of raising the Canadian dollar to par with the U.S. dollar is expected by government authorities to be an increased flow of British imports, for the pound sterling has been cheapened by 10 per cent as part of the policy. Since no significant price rise is in progress in Britain, this 10 per cent reduction in the cost of the British pound will add materially to the comparative price attractiveness of British goods.

Federal economists are stressing the stimulus to three-way trade among Great Britain, Canada, and the United States which complete convertability between the Canadian and U.S. dollars will give. They point out that Canada will want increased quantities of British pounds to pay for an expanded volume of imports from Britain. In the event of a surplus of pounds sterling in the New York exchange market, consequently, Canada could drain some of it off in payment for its newsprint exports.

Thus the move of the Canadian authorities to stimulate British imports to the Dominion is viewed as an important step towards the restoration of traditional three-way Canada-Great Britain-United States international trade.

Help For Unrra

NANKING (AP) — A government spokesman said today Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had ordered all Chinese military organizations on July 6 to assist Unrra in speeding distribution of relief shipments — since cut off because of China's alleged failure to make proper use of the goods. He said Chiang had ordered army trucks be made available.

THE FLAG AND SECTIONALISM

HAVE SOME OF THE QUEBEC MEMbers mistaken the Canadian Parliamentary Flag Committee for the Security Council by trying their hand at using their own particular form of veto? Take the case of Mr. Wilfrid Lacroix, Liberal member of the House of Commons for Montmorency, who told his colleagues at yesterday's sitting of this body that "the province of Quebec and a large portion of all the other provinces will never accept a Canadian flag with a Union Jack in it." Having thus dogmatized, he walked out, presumably in high dudgeon, in the favorite Gromyko fashion. Contrast this, on the other hand, with the attitude of Mr. L. R. Beaudoin, Liberal member for Vaudreuil-Soulanges, who told the committee he was willing to accept the views of the majority. And although no other Quebec member echoed his sentiments, none walked out to keep Mr. Lacroix company.

It would be insulting his intelligence to suggest that the member for Montmorency really believes any substantial element of the Canadian people outside of the province of Quebec is opposed to the inclusion of the Union Jack in the projected national emblem. Whether or not it might have been better if the committee had submitted its final choices—the one favored by the Quebec members and its majority selection—is a debateable point. With only one design to choose from, that with the Union Jack in the left-hand corner and the Maple Leaf in the fly, opponents will say Parliament was presented virtually with a fait accompli. The fact nevertheless remains that this joint Senate-Commons body, to all intents and purposes, was charged with the specific job of ending this long-drawn-out controversy once and for all. And the rest of the Dominions, each possessing its own distinctive flag, will find it difficult to understand why at this stage the ordinary democratic procedure of majority rule should be so flagrantly flouted by threats such as that implied in the opposition of Mr. Lacroix and others of his frame of mind.

GETTING THE VETO HABIT

RUSSIA'S ANDREI GROMYKO USED the veto at the Security Council's meeting in New York yesterday—for the sixth time. The occasion was a proposal from Australia's Dr. H. V. Evatt that Canada, a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, be permitted to sit in on Council discussions of atomic energy. The Soviet envoy objected and suggested postponement of a decision on the ground that it raised new questions. Mexico's chairman Najera, however, ruled that the matter was a point of procedure—not one of substance, as Mr. Gromyko contended—on which the veto right did not apply. The upshot of the incident was nine votes to one in favor of this country's participation in discussions on rules for the Commission, but not on all atomic questions, whereupon General A. G. L. McNaughton, the Canadian representative, was invited to sit at the table.

The reason on which Mr. Gromyko based his objection obviously was taken by the other members of the Security Council with a large grain of salt. What "new questions," however, could Canada's participation in discussions on atomic energy raise that would not be germane to the whole subject involved? Her scientists took an important part in the development of nuclear fission and one of the largest deposits of uranium exists in this country. The Soviet representative is well aware of all this. His objection to Canadian participation in debates on this subject scarcely derived from the prospect of new questions; it was more likely attributable to certain proceedings in this country which have revealed how agents of the Soviet Union, aided by Canadian citizens, have obtained information connected with atomic energy to which she was not entitled.

THE WEEDS GROW

SOME OF THE DIFFICULTIES WHICH are being created by apparent lack of accord between the major powers in Germany are drawn into sharp focus by an unidentified German-Jewish girl who has recently given her impression of the country under Allied rule. In her words:

"The main problem is that Germany is occupied by Allies who exercise no allied policy."

She mentions the persistent rumor throughout Germany that there will soon be a war with Russia and lays much of the blame for that type of talk upon the occupying powers themselves. The sentiment is one echoed not only in the shattered Reich and one which should bring a prompt corrective from the "Big Four." Much as it might suit the design of the unregenerate in Berlin and other former Nazi centres, it can be eliminated and, as peace-serving organizations gain in strength, will cease to pose the menace it does at present.

Adding to the German-Jewish girl's depression, and that of other thoughtful observers, is the attitude she finds among the German people, a condition she notes as follows:

"What strikes me most of all is that they have forgotten they lost the war, or what it means to lose a war. They only know how to make demands and their general attitude toward the Allies is that they are 'Nazis under a different pretext.' It is sickening to observe that nobody feels guilty or depressed over atrocities committed during the war in their name. They feel free of any guilt once they have offered a piece of dry bread to a Jew."

Here is a problem which has long been recognized but for which no adequate solution has yet been advanced. Have the German people stripped themselves of conscience, had their appreciation of decency cut away so severely that no roots remain on which to rest hopes for future growth, or is the condition existing in large sections of the populace attributable to inadequate or improper treatment? The probability that the German-Jewish girl speaks for a notable minority suggests the hope that the seeds of regeneration do exist in Germany, but they will require careful nurturing and protection by constant weeding before they yield a crop. And preparations for a worthy harvest will not be accelerated by failure of the occupying Allies to establish and exercise an Allied policy.

NOT ONLY ARCHAIC

IT IS NOT THE PURPOSE OF THE British Columbia Law Society to suggest that existing divorce legislation be amended in a way to pander to irresponsibility among those who are parties to the marriage contract. But when Mr. W. H. Haldane of Victoria termed the present laws covering that matter "hopelessly archaic," he was, if anything, guilty of understatement. That his opinion was shared by the majority of those attending the society's annual convention in Vancouver is indicated by the delegates' decision to appoint a committee to study the question.

The higher courts of Canada are confronted with few types of cases which bring public appreciation of justice and legal practice to a lower ebb than do divorce hearings. The spirit of the law is defeated daily in respect to the injunction against collusion. On numerous occasions presiding judges have voiced criticism of "manufactured evidence" to prove adultery and facilitate the severance of couples who cannot or will not longer live together as man and wife. The invitation to perjury is so broad that it has, to a large degree, lost its importance in divorce trials. For the sake of a wholesome respect for the courts in general it is hoped some action may be taken to improve legislation which is at present inadequate, debasing and, in some instances, virtually inhuman.

FAR FROM INSPIRING

APART FROM A PITIABLE ABSENCE of anything really constructive, the radio address which Mr. John Bracken, M.P., national leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, delivered last night must have been regarded by a large number of his supporters as a complete waste of time and effort. Nothing the government had done since the end of the war seemed to please the opposition chief. He charged it with ineptitude, with extravagance, with failure to reduce taxation more substantially than prescribed in the recent budget speech, and with a host of other shortcomings.

Perhaps Mr. Bracken's bitterest criticism was of what he termed the administration's bungling of the whole reconstruction program—particularly in the matter of housing and the production of those goods for which the Canadian people are anxiously waiting. But the Progressive Conservative leader conveniently omitted to recount a series of strikes in this country—not to mention those in the United States which had seriously affected Canadian production in numerous lines—that had temporarily suspended operations in several industries in the Dominion whose products are vital to housing and other programs that come under the heading of economic and social rehabilitation. Before he goes on the air again it would be better if Mr. Bracken were to post himself on certain labor-management difficulties and tell the public how he would deal with them.

STRANGE CRITICISM

VICTORIANS WHO HAVE WONDERED why they have been given too much talk and too little action on the airport question will appreciate more fully some of the difficulties facing the authorities when they consider the remarks of an alderman to the City Council the other day. The elected representative in question criticized the city for informing War Assets Corporation that Victoria was interested in acquiring 57 acres of former naval property at Gordon Head. While that district remains in consideration as a potential municipal airport, the least the council can do is to protect itself against the loss of the tract in question. Should the acreage, reportedly bought by the Dominion Government for $5,000 and available to the city at a fraction of the amount, go to private purchasers there would be scant likelihood of Victoria being able to buy it, at some future date, at a price anything like that for which it may now be acquired.

Yet because an alderman thinks Patricia Bay is the only possible site and is of opinion that Gordon Head should remain entirely residential, he protests against the most obvious and justifiable safeguard that could be taken. Does such criticism reflect proper representation on the part of an office-holder elected to protect the interests and advance the welfare of this community?

Never again do we take our text from a certain news weekly. Every time we swallow one of its sensational stories, it turns out to be a "blunder."

Walter Lippmann

EHRENBURG AND THE FOURTH OF JULY

THE OTHER DAY a distinguished Russian writer, Mr. Ilya Ehrenburg, who had been touring the United States, said farewell in an article in which he talked back at those who criticize his own country. He touched neatly and deftly on some of the more obviously embarrassing aspects of American civilization—on Bilboism, for example, which certainly impairs the U.S. title to be regarded as the champions among mankind of human rights and of free elections and of law and order and of government with the consent of the governed.

Yet in spite of this Mr. Ehrenburg says that he found much to admire and much that he liked: "The most beautiful thing I have seen," he said, "are the spiritual possibilities of the American people . . . This people . . . has many high qualities; it is straightforward and daring, industrious and energetic.

THIS IS not exactly America's own unqualified estimate of herself, and when Mr. Ehrenburg has visited oftener he will understand the one most important thing about the spiritual possibilities of the American people that he overlooked. It is that they regard the exposure of their vices and their failings not only as a right to be guarded jealously but as a duty which, as they perform it, proves their manhood.

This is the reason why Americans are able to enjoy the reading of Mr. Ehrenburg's article more than he was entitled to enjoy the writing of it. For surely somewhere in the recesses of his conscience, since he is a highly-educated man, a still small voice must be saying that he does not, did not, and cannot write as honestly about his own country as he writes about this country. I cannot doubt but that he knows that here, despite all the armor of his brilliance, his cleverness, his eloquence, his insight, his condescension, and his self-assurance, is the spot where he is naked and defenceless.

"I DO NOT take offence," he writes, "with those Americans who criticize us." I hope then that he will not take offence if Americans remind him that the issue which divides his country from their own is that an Ilya Ehrenburg can denounce Bilboism in Mississippi but that he cannot admit that anywhere in the whole vast expanse of the Soviet Union and of its imperial orbit there is anyone who does violence to the rights and dignity of man.

When he says that the most beautiful thing he has seen are the spiritual possibilities of the American people, Americans can say that these spiritual possibilities would not exist, that they could not exist, if they had to pretend that there is no such thing as Bilbo except in some other land but their own. They do not have to fool themselves, to stultify themselves, by not telling the truth about themselves.

That is the meaning of the freedom celebrated on the Fourth of July.

AND SO, SPEAKING as one journalist to another, I would say to Mr. Ehrenburg that until he is as free to speak about his own country as he is to speak about this one, the Russians can have no hope of realizing the beautiful spiritual possibilities which exist in such abundance in that gifted, brave and most likeable people. Nor have they any hope of winning the affection and allegiance of the masses of mankind as long as they dare not, cannot, will not come down among them to prove their humanity by confessing their faults and their failings.

As long as they must pretend to be more perfect than men can ever be, and must hold themselves aloof, obscure and mysterious, the timid may fear them, but the shrewd common sense of mankind and its instinct of liberty will not permit men to trust them, to like them, or to follow them.

Quiet, Mr. Rose!

From the Montreal Star

THE CAMPAIGN to make a martyr out of Mr. Rose has started. Until the Communist Member of Parliament had been tried and found guilty, Rose himself, his Communist friends and the Labor-Progressive Party, observed a discreet silence, perhaps because the trial judge, Mr. Justice Lazure, had enjoined silence.

Now Mr. Rose has received a fair trial and been convicted. His case is in appeal, but neither he nor his friends can await the judgment; they have broken out in a rash of complaint that is as stupid as it is uncalled for.

Rose began it by issuing a statement through his wife in which he describes himself as the victim of a "frame-up." Now if Rose is the victim of anything it is his own stupidity and disloyalty. Convicted once of seditious utterance, a fugitive from justice during the early years of the war, he was tried as one of the espionage suspects and the evidence satisfied a highly-intelligent jury that he had betrayed his country.

Rose's statement also referred to the Reichstag fire which "lit the fuse that set off World War II" and added with consummate conceit that the Canadian spy scare could easily become the match that sets off World War III.

Rose might reflect on the words of Mr. Justice Lazure. In sentencing the convicted Member, His Lordship reminded him that he came to this country a poor young man, enjoyed its privileges and opportunities, rose to honor as a Member of Parliament and to comparative ease, then betrayed his adopted country. His friends are now showing that they, too, care nothing for this country or the fairness of its laws and lawcourts.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Twenty-one Allied countries will assemble on July 29 in the old Luxembourg Palace in Paris to lay down peace terms for the Axis countries of Italy, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria and Finland—that is, the conference will assemble unless it is blocked by some great power with a penchant for throwing monkey-wrenches into the machinery.

Employment of the term "peace treaty" of course connotes that war with arms is finished, and the corollary to this is that tranquility once more has settled over the land. The present situation, however, strikes me as providing an exception to the general rule.

It's true the sound of guns and bursting bombs is stilled—and isn't likely to be heard again in a major way for a long time. But just as surely as the sun will rise tomorrow the world is facing an unprecedented period of political turmoil which neither you nor I will live to see completed. Europe is the centre of the upheaval now—but it will spread.

The fixing of peace terms for Italy and the other four states naturally will be a step forward. It will help steady the morale of the defeated peoples and give them hope at a moment when it is badly needed. Beyond that, however, the treaties aren't likely to alter the present situation vastly.

That is to say, we are going to see a continuation of Russia's drive to extend her zone of influence, with Britain fighting to salvage what she can from the dominant position which she held before the war turned things topsy-turvy. That will be a battle to a finish — politico-economic rather than military—but nonetheless deadly.

Letters To The Editor

PASTOR ROWELL WANTS TO KNOW

The following is a copy of the letter I have sent to the Mayor and City Council of Victoria, dealing with a matter of deep interest to Victoria citizens:

"To the Mayor and City Council of Victoria:

"Relative to the forthcoming Roman Catholic Centenary Celebrations, may I ask:

1. "Who authorized the use of our public parks for the distinctive celebration of a 'Grand Pontifical Mass?'

"While all Protestants believe in full religious freedom to all, yet such practices as may be offensive to other religious bodies should be confined to the buildings or premises of the churches concerned; especially when, as the press informs us, after a procession of the 'Most Blessed Sacrament' through our public streets, an address is to be given in Beacon Hill Park entitled 'Our Eucharistic King,' which has reference to the consecrated wafer. This teaching is to Protestants, in the language of the Church of England, a 'blasphemous fable.'

2. "My second question, Sirs, has reference to the so-called 'centenary CIVIC banquet.' This designation — CIVIC banquet — seems to imply civic support and endorsement of the celebrations. If so, it appears to me to be an unwarranted usurpation of the rights of the Protestant peoples of Victoria, and an action to which thousands of voting citizens have not been asked for their consent.

"My question is, who gave permission for this banquet 'to be announced as a 'civic banquet?'

3. "Further, I note that the Mayor of Victoria is classed as a guest speaker with Cardinal McGuigan. The press announced: 'Guest speakers will be James Cardinal McGuigan, Premier John Hart and Mayor Percy George.'

"May I ask, Is it the intention of the Mayor to be co-speaker with Cardinal McGuigan as Mayor and Representative of the citizens of Victoria, or as a private citizen? If as the former, then I make bold to say there are thousands of Protestant citizens the Mayor will not represent.

"In conclusion, may I affirm my conviction that there should be liberty of religious worship for all within the churches of the various religious bodies, but the procession of the so-called 'Most Blessed Sacrament,' which is the central teaching of the Roman Church and repugnant to Protestants, in my estimation ought not to be allowed. I am opposed to discrimination for or against any religious body, but the presence on our public streets of the consecrated wafer designated 'Our Eucharistic King' is an insult to Protestant conviction and spirit."

Red Cross Traces Missing Relatives

The Canadian Red Cross has been designated by the Canadian government as the national tracing bureau for Canada for persons seeking the whereabouts of lost members of their families dispersed during hostilities.

According to an agreement concluded between the international committee of the Red Cross and Unrra, the latter agency has undertaken to make such investigations through a central tracing bureau in all countries.

All persons in Canada who are anxious to know the present address of relatives displaced during hostilities should write the Canadian Red Cross Society who will forward their enquiries to the appropriate tracing bureau.

Since 1939, 42,000 civilian enquiries have been dealt with and 12,000 individual letters written by the Canadian Red Cross regarding whereabouts and welfare of civilians in all countries of the world.

Search This Fall For Women's Suits

TORONTO (CP) — The girls looking for a new fall suit can stop worrying about now over the price. Find the suit first.

Tailors here say an order now might produce a suit for Christmas. One large establishment, through lack of material, won't take orders before September, and wholesalers report more difficulty obtaining suiting than during the war.

These same wholesalers say the mystery of it is that right now the output of woolens in Canada is substantially above the 1939 production level. Despite that, manufacturers can fill only approximately 50 per cent of wholesalers' orders.

As to prices, manufacturers' agents claim prices on British imports likely will soar now that import licenses no longer are necessary, but in the Canadian field where controls exist, they will not climb higher than 10 per cent.

The fact that more Canadians have more money on hand and want to spend it on good woolen clothing is one of the chief reasons for the big demand.

A second reason, the reduction in civilian production during the last six years resulted in the disappearance of "floating inventories" of fabrics and garments, which formerly formed a backlog throughout the industry.

Primer for Brides — It is the duty of the ushers to be at the church early, at least half an hour before the ceremony. Each usher stands at the door and as each woman guest arrives he offers his right arm, asking whether she is a friend of the bride or of the groom. If several women arrive at the same time he offers his right arm to the eldest and the others follow. A gentleman who is with a lady walks a step behind his companion and usher when being shown to a seat.

IDEAL MOTHER

A young woman, with her first baby, asks me what is my ideal of a good mother. Well, my notion of a good mother is a woman with a headful of common sense, a heartful of love, a stiff backbone and a good, strong right hand. And if she can add to these qualifications a laugh that is hung on a hair-trigger, she is a super-duper mother.

The trouble with motherhood seems to be that few women can take it in their stride. Most of them overdo it or underdo it. They spoil their youngsters rotten, or else neglect them. And that gives us the brats and the juvenile delinquents who make a social problem that we do not know how to settle. For it is true today, as it has been since the beginning of time, that the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world, because every man and woman alive are what their mothers made them.

Now there are very few women who do not desire to be good mothers, and nothing is more common than to hear a woman say that she hopes and prays that her children will turn out well, but the catch is you can't develop the characters of children by wishful thinking. You have got to do something about it. And quick. And often. And plenty.

COMMON SENSE NEEDED

And that is where a mother needs common sense in dealing with her offspring. She has to face the fact that her little bundle from heaven has a lot of devilish tricks wrapped up along with his angel traits, and that she has to tone them down if she wants to make a decent citizen of him. And she has to discard the myth that children will outgrow their faults if you will just let them alone. They don't. They increase with the years. The mother who lets her children make a doormat of her when they are little will be trampled under their feet when they are grown.

A good mother must love her children, but she must love them wisely and not too well. Mother love can be a blessing, or it can be a curse. All of us know plenty of mothers who have wrecked their children's lives by their excessive devotion. They wouldn't let their sons leave them to go where opportunity called. They wouldn't let their daughters marry because they couldn't bear to be parted from them. They even broke up their children's marriages because they couldn't endure the thought of John or Mary loving somebody better than he or she did them.

COURAGE, BACKBONE

It takes a lot of strength and courage and a stiff backbone to be a good mother, for the young are strong and lusty and full of fight, and it is so much easier to give in to them than to battle them to a finish. But the mother who surrenders to her children and who lets them do the things she knows they should not do is a coward and a quitter who has betrayed the greatest trust that is ever put in human hands. Every mother who lets her little bobby-sock daughter run around the streets at night with boys of whom she knows nothing, and her teen-age boy careen around the country in the family automobile and frequent bars, is responsible for the follies and crimes they commit.

Many mothers pride themselves upon being ALL mother and boast that they have no interest in the world except their children. That is not the kind of mother that children need or want. They want a mother who will laugh with them and play with them, who keeps herself looking young and pretty and of whom they can be proud, yet who holds a strong hand over them and makes them respect her.

It is a hard job to be a good mother, but grandma's recipe for rearing children—feed 'em and wash 'em, kiss them when they are good and spank them when they are bad—has never been improved upon.

Public's Support Of Truman's Efforts Shows Big Decline

By American Institute of Public Opinion.

PRINCETON, N.J. — While President Truman's vigorous stand on the O.P.A. issue won praise in many quarters, his popularity among the voters of the country had been declining sharply prior to the vote.

During a 10-day period between June 14 and 24, interviewers for the Institute questioned voters in all walks of life on their attitude toward the way Mr. Truman has been handling his job as President.

The results show opinion nearly evenly divided between approval and disapproval — a sharp drop from previous months when polls on the same question found substantial majorities approving his conduct of affairs in the White House. The decline has been one of the sharpest ever noted in the popularity of a major public figure, although the late President Roosevelt's popularity sank to 50.5 prior to the outbreak of war.

The trend of sentiment in the past 12 months of the Truman administration is shown below:

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Truman is handling his job as President?"

	Approve	Disapprove	No Opinion
July, 1945	87%	3%	10%
October	83	8	9
November	75	14	11
Feb., 1946	63	22	15
April	50	36	14
Today	43	45	12

The poll results are a reflection of the country's attitude toward Mr. Truman as a White House personality, and do not necessarily reflect the strength of the Democratic Party as a party.

Lanc Flies Scotland To B.C. In 20 Hours

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Lancastrian, Trans-Canada Airlines' four-motored Atlantic-hopping airplane, stood at the airport here today following a 20-hour one-stop flight from Prestwick, Scotland.

The aircraft crossed the ocean carrying messages to Mayor J. W. Cornett from the Earl of Granville, the Lord Mayor of London, the Mayor of King's Lynn and Attorney-General Gordon Wismer of British Columbia, at present in London.

The craft touched down late Wednesday afternoon, having made only one stop, in Montreal, for refueling.

Retailers Figure Own Import Ceiling

Importers, wholesalers or retailers themselves, can now calculate ceiling price on certain goods imported after July 8 with publication by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, of a schedule of total markups, ranging from 15 to 40 per cent, C. H. Booth, local representative of the board, said Wednesday.

Prior to this new directive, application had to be made by the importer or dealer, direct to the Distributor of Trades, Ottawa, who set a price for each individual item, according to the cost price on invoices. Imported goods from hardware to fancy goods, notions and clothing, are included.

Industrial Accident Deaths Show Increase

TORONTO — Last year 1,101 persons lost their lives and 330,382 others were injured in industrial accidents throughout Canada, according to a statement made Wednesday by W. R. Manock, Fort Erie, president of the Industrial Accident Prevention Associations.

Mr. Manock points out that these figures indicate an increase of 15 per cent in the fatal cases, with a drop of 4 per cent in the total number of cases reported in 1944, when there were 343,769 accidents, including 958 deaths.

Compensation awarded last year by the eight Workmen's Compensation Boards in Canada (excluding Prince Edward Island, which has no Compensation Act) totaled $45,107,298.39, an increase of almost 7 per cent over the 1944 awards, and an all-time high to date.

Commenting on the high awards, Mr. Manock said: "It is quite evident that industry across Canada has only one relief from increasing compensation costs and that is by more careful attention to accident prevention in our production plants."

Old-Age Pensioners Told Organization Needed In Struggle

It was the old story of the plight of the old age pensioner but it was told in different vein to 25 members of the Greater Victoria Branch of the Old Age Pensioners' Association, in First Baptist Church Hall, Wednesday afternoon.

The speaker was Edward Navey, president of the Association's executive council of B.C., who is well past 70. He came to Canada 34 years ago.

This man who went to work in the coal pits of Britain's "black country" at the age of 11, told of the value of organization among the pensioners. He criticized the parliamentarians, provincial and federal who raised their own salaries.

"I told the premier today, if they showed half the aptitude for the old folks as they do for raising their own salaries we'd have something," he said. "Let the government introduce a bill that will give the pension to everyone."

He urged the members to increase their number stating, "If we are to gain anything from this or succeeding governments we've got to let them know what we can do in numbers." There were, he said, about 1,500 pensioners in Victoria and 15,000 to 16,000 throughout B.C. He said he hoped to see half a million in the association across Canada, by the time of the next session.

CONFIDENT OF INCREASE

"I am confident that the means test will be abolished and there will be an increase in the pension," he said as he scored the "number of idiotic questions in order to get the pittance. The form itself is an insult to the intelligence of any human being."

Everything has small beginnings, he told the pensioners as he said they would have to work for what they wanted. He took them back over the years telling them of the fight for repeal of the corn laws and the gaining of cheap bread. He referred to other reforms.

"My father went to jail to help you and I get the vote," he said. "I attended a convention in Liverpool 62 years ago and when I advocated old age pensions they thought me a fool."

Discussing the bonus he said it was not the money that was important but the purchasing power. "Our $5 today is not worth $2.50," he commented. People who had squandered their money gained everything under the present pension set-up, he said, while those who had saved were penalized for it.

He told of a scheme he had in New Westminster to build 32 houses which will rent at $10 a month and enable old couples to spend their last days together.

G. A. Dyson, president of the Greater Victoria branch was in the chair. The local branch now has nearly 100 members, he said.

Final Booklet Tells Of Normandy Battle

By DOUGLAS HOW

OTTAWA (CP) — The historical section of the Canadian General Staff has issued the third and final booklet in its series on the Canadian army overseas in the Second Great War, a 159-page publication which faithfully records the Battle in Normandy from June 6 to Sept. 1, 1944.

Its predecessors described the years of preparation in England and the Sicilian-Italian campaign up until Ortona. They are sold publicly at a nominal price.

In a foreword, Lt.-Gen. Charles Foulkes, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., chief of the general staff, said "it is not intended to extend this series of booklets further. Instead, the Department of National Defence proposes to publish at the earliest possible time a comprehensive one-volume official historical sketch which will afford a brief but accurate account of the work of the Canadian army in all theatres throughout the war."

The booklet deals with Canada's land role in what Gen. Foulkes' foreword calls "perhaps the most remarkable and significant victory in modern history."

"In that victory," he writes, "Canadian forces played a very distinguished part."

That part unrolls in the phrases of Col. C. P. Stacey, O.B.E., director of the historical section, who compiled his account from the reports of his narrators who accompanied the troops.

Col. Stacey's paragraphs add little if any new information to the reams which have already been written about Normandy. Their essential virtue is in their clear, factual presentation of the facts as they unfolded in those historic and bloody months of two years ago.

Mitchell Endorses 10-Cent Wage Boosts

OTTAWA (CP) — Labor Minister Mitchell, in an appeal for support from organized labor in supporting price controls, intimated indirectly that wage increases up to 10 cents an hour might be allowed without endangering prices.

The comment was contained in a telegram sent to Pat Conroy, chairman of the Canadian Congress of Labor wage committee, which Mr. Mitchell read to the Commons Wednesday after announcing government control of the basic steel industry.

"It is the considered opinion of those best able impartially to assess the present economic situation in Canada that increases in wages beyond 10 cents per hour and in some instances less will force a break in the price ceiling," Mr. Mitchell said.

C.C.L. unions have been seeking increases of from 20 to 25 cents with a 40-hour week.

"It will be appreciated that Canada at the present time is going through a very critical period," Mr. Mitchell said in his statement to the Commons. "If there is too great a strain placed on wages it will have a disastrous effect on the whole price structure."

He referred to the effect of abandonment of price control in the United States and reports that prices had advanced 12.7 per cent.

The minister then read the telegram to Mr. Conroy, dated Thursday, warning a similar inflationary spiral could easily occur in Canada should unrestricted wage increases lead to abandonment of price controls.

The minister noted that in the recent British Columbia dispute of the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) an increase of 10 cents an hour was the basis of settlement in interior lumber, logging and box manufacturing industries.

Insects Ravaging Manitoba Spruce

THE PAS, Man. (CP)—Charles Dunn, a trapper in the York Factory area about 550 miles northeast of Winnipeg, reported here a plague of strange insects was moving west and south from the western shore of Hudson Bay, leaving stripped spruce forests in their wake.

He believes the area covered by the insects 115 miles inland to the west from Hudson Bay and southwest to within 15 or 20 miles of The Pas—a distance of about 500 miles.

"I noticed 75 to 80 per cent of the spruce has suffered in the areas around the junction of the Stupert and Fox Rivers, and that is the region where I first saw the insects," he said. "But the damage is spreading farther west, and has already spread back to the coast."

The insects were almost one-half inch long, with "tiny" silver wings and feelers behind and in front of the wings.

They strip branches from spruce trees "as if with saws," leave white spruce "as bare as broomsticks" and attack black spruce from above the six or eight-foot level which marks old and new branch growth.

The Department of Agriculture at Ottawa announced Monday it was intensifying its annual attack on the spruce budworm, an insect which infests an estimated 260,000 square miles of Canadian forests and destroys 10,000,000 cords of timber yearly. Officials said the budworm is threatening valuable white spruce in an arc running from eastern Manitoba to northwestern New Brunswick.

Competition Keen At Revolver Shoot

Watching the competition, left to right, Inspector J. F. C. B. Vance, Vancouver police criminologist; Police Chief John A. McLellan, Inspector of Detectives J. M. Rogers and Magistrate Henry C. Hall.

The continual crack of revolver fire shattered the stillness of Thetis Lake all day long Wednesday when crack pistol shots from Oregon, Washington and B.C. vied for honors in the Victoria City Police Revolver Club's annual shoot.

It was one of the finest snoots staged here with American competitors making clean sweeps in the open events and local "pistol-packers" showing good marksmanship in individaul and team matches.

Not all the competitors were policemen. U.S. Treasury Department officials from various parts of Washington, members of the C.N.R. Revolver Club in Vancouver and wives of all three groups had their turn at the firing line.

In the evening Police Chief John A. McLellan was toastmaster at a banquet in the Empress Hotel, at which Mayor Percy George gave an address of welcome. The banquet was followed by a dance in the recreation hall of the police station during which Mayor George presented prizes won during the day.

REG. LANNING WINS

Ed. Walmsley, of the Seattle Police Department, was high aggregate winner among U.S. competitors while Const. Reg. Lanning of the Victoria police "dethroned" fellow Const. Charlie Webb as top marksman of the city police. Cpl. Jack Henry of the B.C. police detachment at Duncan was high man among B.C. Police contestants, downing Sgt. Jake Young, last year's winner.

In a contest for mayors and police commissioners which attracted keen interest, Commissioner J. F. Dick of Oak Bay was the "dark horse" shooting an 88 score out of a possible 100 to beat last year's winner Commissioner Burges J. Gadsden of the city who scored a 66. Mayor George trailed in third place with a 14 score.

In another event for aldermen and councillors Alderman Ed Williams beat Alderman Robert Dewar when he scored a 70 over the latter's 16.

Walmsley won the .22 calibre national match course, which included slow, timed and rapid fire, shooting a 290 out of a possible 300. Second was Mel Rogers of the U.S. Treasury with 282, and R. A. Schaeffer of the Seattle Police was third with 275.

In the .38 calibre open event, Schaeffer was first with 287 out of a possible 300, Rogers second with 286 and Andy Anderson of the U.S. Treasury third with 283.

SCORES HIGH 93

Mrs. S. Bowes of the B.C. police revolver club won the women's open, scoring 93 out of a possible 100 on the 25-yard range, slow fire. Mrs. J. Young of the same club was second with 90, and Miss A. Welsh of the C.N.R. Club of Vancouver was third with 85.

The Seattle Police Department's team, composed of Walmsley, Schaeffer, J. E. Steele and Capt. Walter Day won the open team event with 1,084 out of a possible 1,200. B.C. police team, composed of Cpl. Henry, Sgt. Young, Const. Joe Gibeault and Insp. C. Clark, was second with 1,077.

The R.C.A.F. beat the Navy team in an armed forces event. The air force team, composed of Group Capt. C. L. Würtele, Flt. Sgts. J. R. Sullivan, R. Kryski and J. C. Bartlett, scored 661. Navy marksmen were Lt.-Cmdr. H. Beketov, WO. D. F. Tutt, CPO. C. R. McKenzie and CPO. G. Taylor. They scored 647.

FOX SQUIRRELS LEAVE WOODS TO HUNT FOR FOOD

As I said yesterday, the red squirrel has a weight of only about half a pound, and is only about 12 inches long, counting its tail.

Gray squirrels are much larger than that. When fullgrown, eastern gray squirrels measure about 18 inches. Half of that length is made up of the tail. We may make a general statement that a squirrel's body is just about as long as its tail.

The so-called "western gray squirrels" live along the Pacific coast. They are larger than their eastern cousins. Hawks, foxes and red squirrels are among their special enemies.

The largest squirrels on this continent are found in southern and southeastern parts of the United States. They are the fox squirrels, which range from Louisiana to Florida, and northward into Virginia.

Fox squirrels have an average length of 25 inches, with the tail. The tail alone is as long as a red squirrel!

Fox squirrels often leave the woods to go hunting for food. They find and eat mushrooms, berries and wild fruit. Sometimes they visit cornfields to feast on ears of corn which are in the "milky stage."

Commonly living in pine trees, they use Spanish moss for their nests. Finding cones on the trees, they bite off the scales so they can reach and eat the seed parts.

Besides the common fox squirrels which I have described, there are several relatives. These are not quite so large on the average. One of them is the yellow-bellied fox squirrel which ranges through the Mississippi valley from Louisiana to Wisconsin. Another is the white-bellied fox squirrel, found chiefly in Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Fox squirrels are the largest squirrels in North America, but Asia has bigger ones. The Malobar squirrels of southwestern India are the largest in the world. They reach a length of 31 inches, counting the tail. One Malobar squirrel may weigh as much as nine red squirrels.

Former Army Camp At Colwood Will Provide School

Building facilities at the former anti-aircraft camp at Colwood have been acquired and will house Grade 7, 8 and 9 students of Metchosin, Happy Valley, Colwood and Langford, Patrick G. Strachan, secretary-treasurer of the board of Sooke Rural School District No. 62, said Tuesday.

The board secured a two-year lease on the Colwood property at a nominal rent through S. W. Randall, Vancouver. The school will be known as Belmont High. School board members have discussed for some time the lack of high school accommodation for students of the Sooke area.

Additional high school facilities at buildings of Milne's Landing military camp are being planned and the centre is expected to receive students of Grades 7 to 9 inclusive, from the Sooke area. Both Colwood and Milne's Landing camp schools will be under jurisdiction of one senior high school principal.

Under agreements with the Greater Victoria school boards, students of Metchosin, Happy Valley, Colwood and Langford, have attended Greater Victoria high schools. The Greater Victoria board however, has announced that while students already registered under this scheme will be allowed to continue, no additional high school students from outside areas may attend in the city due to shortage of space.

U.S. Yields Claim To Nazi Austria Assets

VIENNA (AP) — Gen. Mark W. Clark informed the Austrian government today that the United States was prepared to renounce its share of German assets in Austria and to turn over all German assets in the American zone to Austria.

Clark's action followed the abrupt order of Col.-Gen. L. V. Kurrasov, Soviet commander, announcing the transfer of all German assets in the Russian zone to Soviet ownership.

The announcement is certain to have a deep political effect in Austria.

Pianist Makes Victoria Debut

The Victoria debut of Miss Sue Wooten, young American pianist, at Wednesday morning's concert at the Summer School of Education, was highlighted by her presentation of the first movement of Beethoven's C Major Piano Concerto.

The skill shown by the young pianist in this difficult work was remarkable. She was assisted by Mrs. Irene Bostwick, who played the orchestral part on a second piano.

Other numbers offered by the pianist for the enjoyment of her audience were the Chopin Waltz in A flat, "The Maiden and the Nightingale," by Granados, and de Falla's "Ritual Fire Dance."

Today Frankie Fambro, Negro soprano, presented a program of Negro spirituals and classical selections.

Friday Selma Reyes, Victoria violinist, will give a recital.

Fastballers Prepare For Playoff Battles

Lower Island Fastball Association teams will complete their league schedules shortly and before the month is out playoffs will be under way to determine city champions.

The teams crowned city champs will then go further afield in an endeavour to collect more silverpieces for their trophy cabinets. There will be island playoffs, to be followed by campaigns to decide provincial champions, except in the senior A men's division. This B.C. title fight took place in Vancouver last week when Ciros, after winning the first game of a two-game series, lost out 4 to 3 in the final at the hands of Vancouver Girodays.

Dates for city, island and B.C. playoffs will be determined shortly.

Last night at Central Park, Lloyd Jones' Hoyle-Brown senior A big-apple diamond men accomplished a feat that has happened only once in this season of play—they defeated Jim Lackie's Ciros 6 to 5.

The league-leading restaurant men have a record that reads 13 victories and two defeats. The Hoyle-Brown reading is 8 and 8, while Wally Smith's Canadian Legion cellar berth boys have only two wins in 15 games.

Victory for Hoyle-Brown was provided by Jack Battie. In the last of the ninth he smashed a hit over third base to score the winning run. It was a hard-fought engagement, the score being tied twice en route.

The Hoyle-Browners hammered out 13 hits to Ciros' six. They scored single runs in the second, fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Ciros got to hurler Norm Martin in the seventh and sent four runners over the route to tie the score. In the last of the eighth Jones' lads went out in front again with a single tally, but in the first of the ninth Henry Harris singled for Ciros and came home on an error to again tie things on the scoreboard.

In the closing half of the ninth Hoyle-Brown's "Red" Palmer got a walk and Harrington singled to make first. Then came Battie's opportune hit off Joe Bryant, relief hurler for Ken Gunter, who allowed 12 of the 13 hits, that drove home the deciding run of the game.

OTHEL LEAGUE GAME SCORES

In a men's B-B game, Dockyard Civil Service took the measure of Brentwood Aces, 7 to 3. The Dockyard boys put the cap on a threatening Aces' rally in the ninth. In the same department in the women's league Hepcats suffered a 12 to 3 setback at the hands of Army and Navy Taxi. Walter Yeamans' Hopefuls coasted to a 15 to 2 verdict over Victoria Box & Paper in a women's B-A section game. By virtue of a five-run attack in the fifth frame Adverts emerged with that margin of victory over Sidney at Sidney in a women's B-A game. Final score stood 12 to 7 for Adverts.

Rainiers Take Back 3 Ex-Service Players

SEATTLE (AP) — A Seattle baseball club official said Wednesday that the United States service office had instructed the management that three former players were entitled to re-employment as ex-servicemen.

Vice-president Roscoe (Torchy) Torrance said he has instructed the three — pitchers Larry Guay and John Yelovic and first baseman Leonard Gabrielson — to rejoin the Rainiers. He said they would be turned over to the Vancouver team of Western International League if they are unable to make the grade with Seattle's eighth-place club in the Pacific Coast League. They were released early this season by Seattle.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Mary McKenzie-Grieve and Mrs. W. S. Smith of the Uplands Golf Club will defend the E. D. Todd ladies' brooches against Mrs. M. Todd-Finney and Mrs. J. H. Todd of the Victoria Golf Club on Sunday. The match will commence at 1.30 at the Uplands course.

Oakland Clings To Half-Game Margin Over Coast League

Such faith as few baseball managers have ever shown in a losing pitcher has Pepper Martin demonstrated for Carl Dumler of the San Diego Padres.

Winner of 21 games for the Padres in the Coast League last season, Dumler has been sweating out one of the circuit's most valiant comeback efforts, almost but never winning.

Knowing that Dumler has had tough breaks, Martin has repeatedly placed him on the mound, and last night the game chucker went down to his eighth straight defeat losing 4 to 2 to the San Francisco Seals.

At Seattle the Rainiers won the eight-inning opener 1 to 0 and the Acorns, sharing the league lead with the Seals as they went into the nightcap, retaliated 5 to 3. Lou Tost turned in a two-hit mound performance for the Seattle victory.

The Portland Beavers in the ninth inning rallied to tie and defeat the Sacramento Solons 4 to 3.

The Los Angeles Angels strengthened their hold on third place by a doubleheader victory over the Hollywood Stars, 8 to 3 and 2 to 1.

Local 'Y' Swimmers In Vancouver Gala

Led by George Morgan, president of the Victoria Flying "Y" Swimming Club, a team of the best "Y" seniors, juniors and juveniles will board the midnight boat tonight to invade Vancouver for the special invitation jubilee celebration gala in Kitsilano pool tomorrow and Saturday. Seattle and Spokane clubs will be in the meet to vie against Victoria and Vancouver top-flight performers.

Archie McKinnon will be in Vancouver in time for the meet with his may-junior championship team of Peter Salmon, Eric Jubb and Jack Creedon, the trio which added several high honors to the "Y" club's name in the national championships in Hamilton, last week. The Victoria "Y" team to take part in the Vancouver show numbers 17 boys and girls. Mrs. Marg Naysmith, club secretary, will also make the trip.

Paterson Retains Title In Tame Bout

GLASGOW (CP) — Jackie Paterson Wednesday night retained his world flyweight title by winning a 15-round decision over Joe Curran of Liverpool. Paterson, a 25-year-old Scot weighed 112 pounds to Curran's 109.

An estimated 50,000 fans jammed the Hampden Park soccer stadium and booed the 32-year-old challenger's efforts to climb on his bicycle and back away through the first two rounds.

At one point, Paterson, disgusted, dropped his gloves to his sides and stopped chasing the Liverpool leaper. And twice Referee Moss Deyong warned Curran he "must stop running away and make a fight."

Paterson, who was twice defeated by Curran before he became champion, floored the challenger three times and at the end of the sixth Curran was so dazed he staggered into a neutral corner when the bell rang.

A press association reporter called it "the poorest championship fight ever" and credited Paterson with every round.

Jockey Sporri Set Down For Meeting

VANCOUVER—Veteran jockey Emil Sporri was suspended Wednesday by B.C. Turf and Country Club stewards for the balance of the present meeting at Lansdowne Park.

Sporri, senior rider at the current meeting, was set down after Brighton King, heavily-favored in the second race, unseated Jockey Bellos after a pile-up on the backstretch.

Immediately after the race, stewards decided that Sporri, who was aboard Miss Wracia, cut too sharply in front of Brighton King. He was allowed to complete his riding engagements for the day, but can accept no further mounts until the Hastings Park meeting.

Major Baseball

Cards Open Final Drive

St. Louis Cardinals, owners of more pennants and first-division finishes than any other club in the National League in the last 20 years, appear on the brink of starting another of their famous stretch drives as the second half of the major league season begins today.

Trailing the crippled Brooklyn Dodgers by five games, the runner-up Red Birds enter the crucial stage of the flag race boasting a five-game winning streak.

New York Giants grapple with Eddie Dyer's crew under the arcs tonight while the Dodgers, hampered by the loss of Pee Wee Reese, return to action at the home of the defending champion Chicago Cubs.

The Cards, who have won eight pennants and wound up 17 times in the first division since 1925, have come from behind after trailing in July to win four of their pennants during the late stages of the campaigns.

DODGERS IN BAD WAY

The plight of the Dodgers is dark as, in addition to Reese, who is not counted on for the Chicago or St. Louis series, the status of Pete Reiser is in doubt.

Reiser, who, along with Reese and Dixie Walker, has been highly responsible for the Dodgers' present berth, is troubled with a shoulder separation.

These ailments and the fact that the Brooks have managed to win only nine of 20 games from western clubs in their home parks may greatly change the complexion of the race when the teams return east July 23.

The American League spotlight will be focused on Yankee Stadium, where Bobby Feller of Cleveland Indians and Spud Chandler of second-place New York are slated to oppose each other in a night contest.

Keen Boxla Fight Expected Tonight

The prediction is for a "hot game" tonight when the two leaders in the current outdoor senior box lacrosse circuit, Tom Carney's Jokers and Art McKim's Canadian Legion squads, clash in the box at Stevenson Memorial Park. Game will open at 6:45.

Composed of veteran material with lots of box-warfare experience the two teams should provide plenty of action. Neither has been defeated thus far this season. Sid Anderson and Ivan Taylor will referee.

Carney will have the following in the black and orange uniform of the Jokers: Gawley, Ball, McLennan, Lavery, Thomas, Ovcharick, Cummings, Druce, Sage, Brown, Douglas, Coates and Harding.

Will Add 6 Girls To K.V.'s Majorettes

Arrangements have been completed to augment the K.V.'s Athletic Club majorettes team from eight to 14 members and girls between the ages of 17 and 19 who wish to become a part of this colorful unit are asked to turn out at the Memorial Hall tonight at 7.30.

The majorettes, besides appearing locally to give teams wearing K.V. colors moral support in basketball, have also appeared in the majority of island centres.

Auto Races Carded Saturday Evening

Auto races will return to Langford Speedway Saturday night with five and possibly six Seattle drivers scheduled to battle for the prize-money against the Victoria speed artists. First race is called for 7.45.

Officials in charge announced today that Lou McMurtie, Claude Walling, L. Cox, Bud Nelson and Ken Gardner are definitely coming from Seattle to participate, with a sixth car and driver to make the trip if possible. Cox and Gardner will both be making their first appearance at the local track.

Digger Caldwell, Victoria pilot who has cleaned up the main events in meets so far, will head the local entry, which will also include Jack Norton, Jerry Vanteight, Pike Green, Corky Thomas, Bob Wensby and Jack Spaulding.

A model T race will be staged with the first six entries received at the Fernwood Garage being eligible for the event. Club members who have not secured their passes are requested to pick them up at the Fernwood headquarters.

Claims First Coho Catch Off Oak Bay

Harold Palmer advances the claim of having caught the first coho of the season in Oak Bay waters. Fishing Tuesday night off "Golf Course Point" he landed a nine-pounder on a Hanson plug with 60 feet of cuddy-hunk line and four ounces of weight.

Victoria Cricketers Draw With Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — By holding a powerful Vancouver team to a draw on the upper Brockton Pitch Wednesday, Victoria remained in a tie for the lead in the B.C. cricket week with the mainland eleven, each with a win and a draw. Vancouver scored 178, and Victoria replied with 107 for the loss of seven wickets. The Wednesday League side defeated Okanagan 234 runs to 114, and now have one win and one loss. All four teams played 12 men a side.

Top scorers for Vancouver were Tommy Reed and Jim Sharp with 37 runs each, while Wally Scott made 35 and Doug Milne 26. Leading run-getters for Victoria were Alan Griffin with 27, D. L. Morgan with 26 and Bob Colquhoun with 24. Bowling honors went to Reg Wenman with 5 wickets for 48 runs and Owen Morgan with 4 for 45 for Victoria, and to Tommy Reed with 2 for 15 for Vancouver.

Gerry O'Hara's 88 was high score for the Wednesday League, Arthur Smith Jr. making 48, and Stan Clarke 24. Bill Carr-Hilton hit up 43, and Doug Malloy made 28 for Okanagan. Bill Palmer took 3 wickets for 13 runs for Okanagan, and Neil Clark had 4 wickets for 11 runs for the mid-week side.

Bisley Shoot Tame Without Canadian Stars Competing

BISLEY CAMP, SURREY, Eng. (CP)—The first postwar Bisley is cracking toward its finale Saturday but veteran marksmen say the competition will not return to prewar excitement and high standard of shooting until the Canadians are back in strength.

"Canadians always kept us on our toes and provided most of the fun," said a grey-haired member of the City Rifle Club of London, which has always been like another home to Canadian marksmen. "But never mind—we are looking forward to seeing them again next year."

Although Canada has no team contesting for national association prizes, four Canadians have entered individually and are having the time of their lives even though they expect to take home no trophies.

The best showing to date is by Capt. R. W. Hampton whose wife lives at Chute Panet, Que. Capt. Hampton got his early training of ranges at Guelph, Ont., as a youngster and after joining the army, made Canada's 1940 Bisley team but the meet was called off.

Other Canadians taking part in the Bisley are FO. G. Giles of Ottawa and Capt. D. C. Cullington and Maj. W. T. Gildren, both of Toronto.

Despite a smaller entry list than usual and an absence of Empire teams, the Bisley retains plenty of color.

Canada Hut, which is Canadian headquarters, stands vacant under shady maple trees brought especially from Vancouver. Only a few tents are pitched on the fields which usually have no room to spare but everyone is optimistic that things will be back to normal next year.

A's Hit In Clutch To Defeat Tacoma 14-13

In another of those knock 'em down drag 'em out affairs Victoria Athletics set down the Tacoma Tigers in their Western International League ball game last night at Athletic Park 14 to 13 and it took the clubs three hours to complete the eight and a half innings. Win gave the A's a 2 to 0 games lead in the series and moved them closer to seventh-place Vancouver who suffered a 4 to 2 defeat by Salem.

HOW THEY STAND

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Salem	50	28	.641
Bremerton	42	27	.609
Wenatchee	49	32	.605
Tacoma	41	31	.569
Spokane	33	33	.500
Yakima	31	42	.425
Vancouver	26	48	.352
Victoria	24	54	.308

Victoria fans saw Ted Norbert, manager of the A's, ejected from the game for the first time since he took over the club, when plate umpire Rice thumbed him to the showers in the eighth for protesting too strongly on the number of warm-up pitches allowed Tacoma hurler Sostre. Norbert had engaged in a heated argument with Rice earlier in the game, over a three and two pitch to a Tacoma batter.

Athletics cut loose with a lot of power in the clutch to win. They made 11 hits good for 14 runs with extra-base knocks coming when they did the most good.

OLIVER WINNING PITCHER

Doug Oliver, making his first mound appearance at home for the Athletics, pitched a lot of baseball to receive credit for the victory. The slender right-hander experienced plenty of control trouble, giving up nine bases on balls and cutting loose with two wild pitches. Oliver helped his own cause with a triple and single, driving in four runs. He had to receive help from Joe Blankenship in the ninth inning, after Tacoma had pushed across four runs and had the tieing runner on second base with only one out. Blankenship forced the next two batters to ground out as the fans roared.

Cy Greenlaw, leading the league in wins, with 13, started for the Tigers but his southpaw slants were no mystery to the A's as they racked him for 10 hits and all their runs. He was replaced in the eighth by Sostre.

With Tacoma enjoying a 5 to 3 lead in the fifth the A's moved ahead 6 to 5 as second baseman Beans Marionetti lifted the ball over the left field fence with two runners aboard. Tacoma came back to push four runs across in the sixth on four hits, including doubles by Peterson and pinch-hitter Kemper, a base on balls and an error by Dunn.

Continuing to pound the ball the A's got five runs in the seventh with Oliver's triple to deep left field and Dunn's double being the payoff blows. Another three runs went up on the board for Victoria in the eighth, Bob Cherry's single following an error and two walks.

Tacoma tried desperately to pull the game out of the fire in the ninth only to fall one run short.

Marionetti paced the hitters with three for four.

The DOCTOR Says:

RELAXING SUN-BATHS BENEFIT THE BODY

By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.

Advocates of sun-bathing make enthusiastic claims for its health benefits, but only one disease (rickets) is prevented or cured by sunlight. Rickets is a disorder of the skeleton of the rapidly growing child, and it does not occur in adults.

Rickets ordinarily develops in infants and children who do not receive regular doses of sunlight or its substitute, vitamin D. Diets deficient in bonebuilding materials also contribute to the development of rickets — more commonly, however, in animals than in man.

Rickets in mild degree, may develop at any time up to the completion of growth (18 to 21 years), during the periods in which growth is extremely rapid.

It is not necessary to expose the entire body to the sun in order to receive the maximum benefit from ultra-violet radiation. The practice of wearing special summer clothing, while it adds to the comfort of the individual, is not necessary from the standpoint of ultra-violet radiation. Daily exposure of the hands and face is sufficient for health needs.

RAYS PRODUCE VITAMIN D

The chief effect of ultra-violet radiation on the body is to help it make better use of the calcium and phosphorous in the diet. The rays act on the oils in the skin and produce vitamin D.

In animals the practice of licking the skin serves a useful purpose in providing extra amounts of vitamin D, but the way in which this oil is utilized in man is not clear.

Other effects of sunlight on the body are an increase in the respiration and pulse rates, a slight increase in the white blood cells, and a lowering of blood pressure. Ultra-violet rays also destroy bacteria in nature, but, as they penetrate only the outer layers of the skin, they do not have any effect upon the disease germs in the body.

Sun-bathing promotes relaxation. Whether we practice it out-of-doors in the summertime or under an ultra-violet lamp on a cot in a reconditioning studio in the wintertime, the effect is the same. Winter vacations in warm places relax tension and lower the blood pressure temporarily.

When blood pressure examinations are made of troops before they leave for the tropics and at periodic intervals after their arrival, a definite lowering of the blood pressure is recorded. This is not a direct effect of sunlight. Rather, it is the indirect effect on men who have adopted the living habits of the tropics.

Most skin diseases improve in the summertime, especially adolescent acne. In fact, all skin troubles in which there is an emotional factor involved are relieved by sunlight. Skin disease patients who must apply medicines to the skin during the winter months are often advised to discontinue treatment during the summer.

Patients with tuberculosis of the bones, glands and peritoneum are helped by sunlight, but victims of lung tuberculosis should not be exposed to excessive amounts. The old idea that the treatment of tuberculosis required sun, fresh air, and special diets for cure has been replaced by the new concept holding that the most important factor in treatment is rest and that only ordinary amounts of sun and fresh air are needed.

Summer is a good time to relax. Even though no formal vacation is possible for everyone, all of us can take time out to take it easy occasionally.

Efficiency experts point out that it is possible to get more work done in a shorter time if we practice daily relaxation.

Question: My 16-month-old daughter has a birthmark on her stomach which is about the size of a dime, bright red in color, and slightly raised from her body. Do you advise removal?

Answer: Most authorities advise removal of this type of birthmark. Consult your physician for details.

Vancouver's Show Rained Out Again

VANCOUVER (CP)—For the third time in nine performances, the Jubilee show was rained out here Wednesday night.

When the show was planned, a survey was made of weather records over a 40-year period, which showed the average number of rainy days fo rthe first half of July is two. Wednesday night, an audience estimated at 10,000 was forced to run for shelter when the show was barely under way.

Proud of Victoria's Win

S. P. Johns, chairman of the Lions Club float committee for May 24, Mayor Percy George and William Carter, foreman of the city carpenter shops, admire the handsome silver cup and tray won by Victoria's float in Vancouver's Jubilee parade. Mr. Carter was responsible for designing and building the float. He was helped in decorating it by Lions Club members. He took the float to Vancouver and saw that 5,000 artificial roses and carnations were fastened on it again. The float won the grand prize, competing against 190 others, and also won in its own class. Mayor George has paid high tribute to Mr. Carter's work.

Postwar Marriage, Birth Boom Sets New Records For Province

A postwar boom in marriages and births in British Columbia is setting all-time records, smashing even the wartime highs.

The division of vital statistics reported today that in May births had reached an all-time high of 1,860. The previous monthly peak was in warime, May, 1944, when 1,760 births were registered.

The birth rate for May of this year was recorded at 23.77 per 1,000 population, an increase over May, 1945, of 3.51.

The division reported marriages this year continued on the upswing, the increase averaging 200 per month over each similar month in 1945, and presaging a continued increase in births in future.

In May of this year 858 marriages were registered, compared with 657 in May last year. Total marriages to May 31 this year are 3,916, against 2,959 for the first five months of 1945. The division put the marriage rate in May of this year at 10.96 per 1,000 population.

While births and marriages increased sharply in May, only a slight increase in the number and a decrease in the rate of deaths were recored. Deaths in May of this year totaled 836, compared with 823 in May, 1945. The death rate dropped from 10.70 to 10.68 per 1,000 population because of the increase of population.

The division reported the monthly natural increase in population had risen steadily during this year and in May had reached 1,024.

Divorces granted in May numbered 200, equaling the all-time record set in November and December of 1945. Divorces granted in May, 1945, totaled 139. To date this year 859 divorces have been granted compared with 566 in the first five months of 1945.

Also showing an increase is the number of name changes, which in May totaled 41, compared with 26 in May, 1945.

Illegitimate births are also climbing, 94 having been registered in May of this year against 62 in May of last year.

Cuba has approximately 7,000,000 acres devoted to raising sugar cane.

No Action Taken On Water Survey

No action was taken by the water board this morning on the request from Hon. Norman Whittaker, M.L.A. for Saanich, that the city join Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt in asking the provincial government to appoint an expert to investigate water conditions on the Saanich peninsula.

Ald. J. A. Worthington, chairman of the water board, said that the committee decided to investigate the implications of the request further before taking any action. He indicated he would want assurance that such an investigation would in no way interfere with nor delay the city's plans for waterworks construction and improvement.

Mr. Whittaker attended the meeting to state his case.

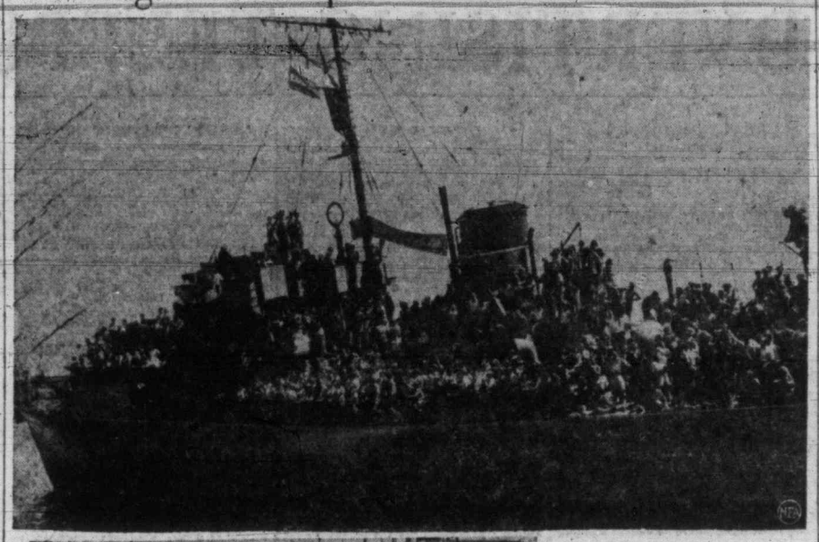
Unemployment Claim Charge Long Delayed

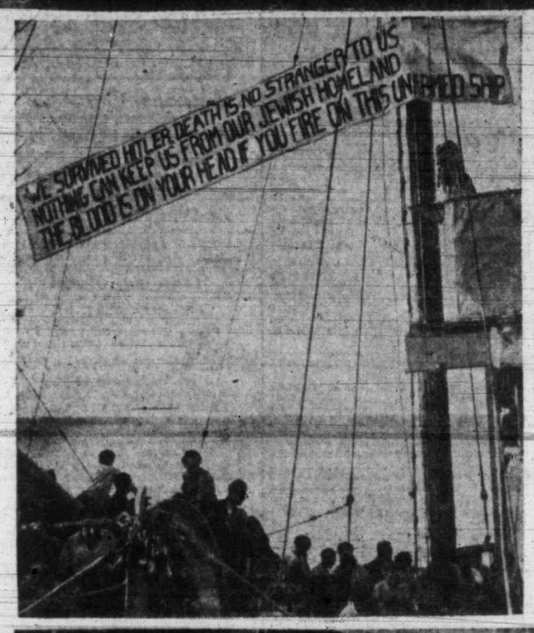
Sentence in the city police court case of George C. Leidy, who pleaded guilty today to making a false statement to an employment and claims officer of the Unemployment Insurance Commission for the purpose of receiving benefits for three days in which he was employed last September, was reserved by Magistrate Henry C. Hall until Friday.

Magistrate Hall remanded the case in order that he could study the act under which Leidy was charged. E. S. Farr, prosecuting attorney, said a jail sentence had to be imposed without option of a fine. The magistrate questioned this.

The magistrate also questioned the prosecutor on his request for a substantial penalty, stating it was difficult for him to treat the matter seriously when the charge against the man was not laid until nearly 10 months after the offence was committed.

'Nothing Can Keep Us From Our Homeland'





In the dark of a midsummer night recently, a former Canadian corvette, the Josiah Wedgewood, slipped from an unnamed European port and headed for Palestine. Aboard the vessel, crammed into every inch of deck space, above, were 1,300 Jewish refugees, seeking escape from authorities and refuge in Palestine. Their journey and their destination were illegal, but a makeshift banner, left, proudly portrayed their spirit and defied intervention. Seventy-three miles out at sea British warships spotted the outlaw craft, lay in wait until it entered territorial waters, then closed in. The corvette halted only after a British destroyer fired three shots in warning. The refugees, below, their flight a failure, quietly accepted detention. They were held at Athlit Clearance Camp at Haifa, Palestine, on an official charge of being a "menace to navigation." Exclusive NEA photos by staff photographer Emil Reynolds.

25,000 Jews Attempt Exodus From Poland

WARSAW (AP) — A mass exodus of thousands of Jews was reported under way today in Poland, scene of a recent pogrom which resulted in 41 deaths.

Twenty-five thousand Jews recently repatriated from Russia are concentrated at Walbrzych, coal mining city 12 miles from the Czechoslovakia border, awaiting a chance to leave the country.

Others are coming through the mountain passes daily in caravans and trucks, with Palestine as their ultimate destination.

A Jewish leader said hundreds of Jews were leaving Walbrzych daily, crossing the frontier on foot at unguarded points or paying someone to help them cross by other methods.

All through the lower Silesia area, Jews from Russia are banding together to protect themselves against any anti-Jewish outbreaks.

Eleven men and a woman are on trial before a high Polish military court in Kielce on charges of having instigated the recent anti-Jewish uprising. They have admitted "qualified guilt."

More Night School Classes Planned

Plans are under way at the School Board office to hold night school classes next year at Oak Bay and Esquimalt, in addition to the regular classes which are held in Victoria High and Central Junior High schools.

Classes will also be held at Saanich, although the new technical workshop at Mount View School will not be ready for night school work until early in 1947.

It is expected that the number of courses offered at night school this coming year, which starts in October, will be increased.

Meeting Sought

Chief Justice Gordon Sloan, industrial disputes inquiry commissioner in the strike of 2,500 hard rock miners, today is attempting to arrange a meeting of the miners' bargaining agency, the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (C.I.O.-C.C.L.), and the mine operators.

The Chief Justice received his commission today from Ottawa.

He is instructed to confer with both parties in an attempt to arrange a settlement of the dispute which precipitated the strike of the B.C. miners July 3.

Wrapping Paper Will Be Scarcer

Bigger parcels will be wrapped in less paper and be carried in smaller shopping bags, as a result of a W.T.P.B. directive announcing a further curtailment of wrapping paper, shopping bags and brown envelope production, according to a local paper wholesaler.

Another stated that the reduction might necessitate some unwrapped parcels and people bringing their own shopping bags to stores.

"Our Kraft paper production has been curtailed by 19 per cent and shopping bags by 10 per cent," he said. "That may not sound much but there are many more business houses today needing supplies. Our quota is based on what we got in 1943."

Engineer At Nelson Coming To Victoria

Ernest Smith, district public works engineer stationed at Nelson, has been transferred to district No. 1, with headquarters in Victoria, it was reported today.

Replacing him in West Kootenay will be E. P. Roberts from the Williams Lake area, who was stationed in Nelson from 1924 to 1928.

Mr. Smith has been the provincial government's public works engineer for this district for the last 15 years.

Dr. Arthur I. Brown, noted lecturer on Christian apologetics, will speak in Central Baptist Church tonight at 8, on "Where Are The Dead?", and Friday night, on "The Greatest Teacher and His Greatest Sermon."

No Coal Rationing Contemplated, Says Ottawa Official

EDMONTON (CP)—Despite a not-too-bright coal supply outlook for Canada next winter, nothing so drastic as coal rationing is contemplated, E. J. Brunning of Ottawa, Dominion Coal Controller, said today in an interview here.

"The domestic coal market will be tight, but I feel we'll get through next winter all right," said Mr. Brunning, who is here conferring with district coal operators. He warned, however, that Canadians should heed the repeated advice of authorities to lay in coal supplies early.

The controller pointed out that for the first time in history all Alberta mines are operating at virtually full capacity in what is normally considered the slack summer season. Mine operators of the west were pleased with result of the "buy your coal now" campaign which was keeping the mines in operation on a balanced load basis and employing miners at a season when they usually are laid off.

Mr. Brunning said a large amount of the briquet output from Alberta's Canmore and Brazeau fields is being diverted to eastern Canada to compensate for an acute coal shortage there which resulted from the recent U.S. coal strike.

Alberta now had a fine opportunity to secure permanently a good share of the Ontario domestic market and continuance of subsidies by the Dominion would facilitate shipments from this province to the east.

Mihailovic Makes Last Plea For Life As Soldier Patriot

BELGRADE (AP) — The trial of Gen. Draja Mihailovic moved swiftly towards its climax today following the former Yugoslav War Minister's final plea for his life, in which he voiced "an absolute hatred for the Germans" and denied charges that he had collaborated with them.

In a four-hour address Wednesday to the war crimes tribunal before which he and 23 co-defendants are on trial, Mihailovic reviewed his career as leader of the Chetniks and asked the court "to be fair in its evaluation of my work."

"I do not say that I made no mistakes, but everyone was making mistakes," Mihailovic declared.

NO PACT WITH ENEMY

The Chetnik chieftain, hailed by the Allied world as the leader of Yugoslav resistance forces in 1941, referred frequently to his notes as he sought to refute the testimony of prosecution witnesses that his men had fought side by side with the Germans against Marshal Tito's Partisans.

He said he had "never made an agreement with any enemy," and that he had always maintained a hostile attitude toward the Germans.

He ended his plea by declaring:

"I am a soldier. I organized resistance against the Germans. I am sorry that anyone could think that I was not being loyal to my country."

Constellation Plane Crashes In U.S.; All Crew Killed

READING, Pa. (AP)—Three to five persons were killed today in the crash of a Transcontinental and Western Airlines four-engine Constellation plane four miles north of here, the Reading barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police reported.

"All of the crew members were killed," Sgt. Edward C. Sickle said. "The detail I sent to the scene reported that from three to five bodies are in the plane, which is still burning."

Sickle said the barracks had received first notification of the crash about 1.40 p.m. E.S.T. and that it probably had occurred a few minutes earlier.

"From what we can determine," he said, "the plane was coming in for a landing and crashed about two miles north of the airport."

Sickle said he believed the plane was being used for training.

Charged With Robbery

TORONTO (CP)—Police today took into custody Harry Davis, vice-president of the Canadian Seamen's Union, and said they were holding him for Police Chief Fred Davies of Port Colborne, Ont., on a warrant charging him with robbery with violence. It was learned at Port Colborne the arrest was linked with the assault and robbery of Alex Morrison, Toronto private detective, at Port Colborne last month.

The B.C.E.R. sponsored band concert, postponed on account of inclement weather Wednesday evening, is scheduled for this evening at Beacon Hill Park. Al. Prescott will direct the band with Miss Grace Adams and A. Stringer as assisting artists.

Boy, 14, Murders Woman For Thrill

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP)—Sheriff Emil W. Fox said today a 14-year-old orphan boy, who described himself as an avid reader of "murder stories," told of killing a 63-year-old farmwife Wednesday "for the thrill of killing."

Stabbed through the back with a carving knife while she was mixing bread dough, Mrs. Frank Fletcher was found dead in her Graysville farm home by her husband.

Fox said the boy, former inmate of a juvenile correction home, had been given the farm job two weeks ago by a juvenile court officer.

The rhinoceros is dull of sight, but its hearing and scent are very acute.

Boyer, Bacall In Spy Thriller

Charles Boyer and Lauren Bacall are co-starred in Warner's new romantic drama, "Confidential Agent," which opens today at the York Theatre. The film is an adaption of Graham Greene's well-known adventure novel of the same name.

'Harvey Girls' At Atlas Today

"The Harvey Girls," new M.-G.-M. Technicolor musical, coming to the Atlas screen, is a laugh-filled, tune-infested story of the early days of the famous Harvey eating houses along the Santa Fe Railroad.

Hollywood Column

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — That perennial cigarette girl, Carmen, last night opened the symphony season at the Hollywood Bowl, just as she inaugurated the vast, open-air music haven 25 years ago.

Just 25 years ago, the Bizet opera opened and helped pay for the 15,000-seat bowl nestled in the hills above the heart of Hollywood. A production of "Twelfth Night" by Hollywood high school paid for the lights. Four years later the capacity was increased to 20,000 and during its 25 years the bowl has provided Bach, ballet and barrelhouse to 6,000,000 listeners during the summer months.

Almost everything has happened in the bowl. Composer Percy Grainger was married there before 15,000 people. And one night a baby was born to a mother who apparently loved music more than safety.

Lily Pons holds the attendance record with 26,000 listeners. That includes those sitting among the sage brush and a few non-paying cheapskates who climb trees.

Are you sure you want to be a star? Bing Crosby returned to Hollywood with his car top covered with fan autographs in pencil, chalk, crayon and ink. Some are carved. The hub caps are gone and one enthusiast even carved a heart in the leather upholstery.

Grain

WINNIPEG (CP) — Rye futures prices showed more stability today, rallying from early maximum losses of five cents to close 2 to 2½ cents down. The market fell initially but offerings dried up and a buying surge on United States accounts entered to reduce the earlier losses. Trade was on a fairly broad basis. Sale of 350,000 bushels of wheat, first in about a week, for export to the United Kingdom was announced.

CHICAGO (AP)—Strength in cash markets caused a sharp reversal in grain futures trends today, corn soaring the full five cent limit after early weakness and oats jumping around three cents at one time.

Final prices were at or just under the day's best levels. Corn finished five cents higher, January $1.66¼ and oats were up 2 to 4½ cents, July 89⅝-⅞. There was a little trading in November barley at $1.41½, unchanged.

Fractional Losses Predominate

NEW YORK (AP) — Special stocks gave a good account of themselves in today's market although many leaders continued their retreat.

Steels led an early decline. Wednesday's buoyant liquors and some packers stumbled over profit cashing. While scattered plus marks persisted near the close, declines of fractions to a point or more predominated. Dealings were lively at intervals and turnovers of around 1,000,000 shares was the best since July 1.

Canadians were weak at noon. Distillers Seagram was off 1⅜ at 28⅜, Dome Mines down ¼ at 23½, International Nickel off ½ at 38¼ and Hiram Walker down 1 at 144. Canadian Pacific traded unchanged at 19⅛.

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:

30 Industrials 206.30, off 1.26
20 Rails ..... 64.60, off 0.12
15 Utilities ..... 41.46, off 0.25
65 Stocks ..... 76.47, off 0.38

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

CAUSTIC CRITIC

LADY ASTOR, the irrepressible Nancy who used to keep the British House of Commons on edge by her verbal ripostes, recently returned to Britain after a tour of the United States.

During her three-months' stay on this side, the 65-year-old Virginia-born wife of a British peer delivered herself of a series of caustic criticisms of people and institutions of her native land.

For instance, while addressing the Virginia State Federation of Women's Clubs, she said, among other things:

On radio—"Though the British Broadcasting System is dull, it is at least decent and we don't sell everything. If I were the women of America, I'd do something about the broadcasts."

On the press—". . . and those appalling murder stories. I'm not at all surprised at juvenile delinquency. What sort of ideals are those to hold up to people?"

A BROAD RANGE

ON THE NUMEROUS occasions on which she addressed American groups, Lady Astor spoke her mind with her customary frankness.

Castigating critics of the proposed Anglo-American loan, she suggested "they had better get down on their knees and thank God there was a Britain . . . It is not the English way to hit a man when he is down. Nor America's."

"Why this outburst of criticism against the loan? I am sure it is not the people. It is the politicians trying to muscle in."

In her opinion, the best way for the world to get peace is for Britain and the United States to co-operate.

As to conditions in Europe, her proposal is typically Astorian: "If I had my way I would send a Salvation Army to occupied Europe with Bibles translated into all the languages."

ON YOUNG PEOPLE

NOR DID SHE HESITATE to express herself on the subject of individual moral responsibility.

With regard to young people and their problems, she put it thus: "Young people of today hardly know right from wrong, with their broken homes, war and bad examples."

And among the duties facing older people, she emphasized the importance of "putting the ypunger folk to thinking right or youth can't put their lives to right."

When someone at a press conference asked Lady Astor what she thought of Hitler's "perfect women," she pungently replied:

"Oh, they looked brave and bustiferous enough. But one East End (London) woman, with her adenoids and all, has more guts than all the German women put together."

PRAISE FOR BRITISH

AN ARDENT FEMINIST, the ex-M.P. was warm in her praise of British women. She declared there is nothing the British woman cannot do, and went on:

"They have helped the women throughout the world to maintain an equal footing with men."

And she appealed to American women to get together with the women of the British Commonwealth and contribute to the management of international affairs.

"It wasn't the women who started these wars," she reminded them. When asked if she saw any duties left for men to perform, Lady Astor retorted: "It's time for them to take a rest and let the women take a hand in managing world affairs."

PARTING SHOT

ON THE EVE of her departure for England, the irrepressible Nancy took a parting shot at her former compatriots by twitting their vanity and their drift towards materialism.

She said she had lost all confidence in the women of the United States since seeing their hats!

After calling their extreme fashions an expression of post-war moral laxity, Lady Astor urged thinking women to rebel against them.

Fannie Hurst, the American novelist, also took issue with the U.S. woman's alleged absorption in clothes and cosmetics.

FOR CANADIANS, TOO

BEFORE the General Federation of Women's Clubs, she charged that her countrywomen were "sleeping beauties," running their lives with the hour set at "sex o'clock" and failing to make themselves a force to improve politics or avert war.

Some of Lady Astor's and Miss Hurst's criticisms might also be applied to some Canadian women who, like their American counterparts, are fiddling with futilities while the world burns.

There never was a greater challenge to women to take a hand in national and international affairs than there is today. If they don't, there may not be a tomorrow!
